2. From the Commissioner of Social Defence letter No.20743/D3/2007, dated 30.12.2009, 16.9.2010, 18.10.2010, 24.12.2010, 28.7.2011 and 29.9.2011.

ORDER:

The Nation has acceded to the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC) on 11th December 1992 which is an International Treaty that makes it incumbent upon the signatory States to take all necessary steps to protect Children's Rights enshrined in the Convention. To ensure protection of rights of the children, the Government of India adopted the National Charter for Children, 2003 and enacted the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 as amended in 2006, which provides for the constitution of National Commissions for Protection of Child Rights and State Commission for Protection of Child Rights.

2. According to sub-section (1) of Section 17 of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights Act, 2005 (Central Act, 4 of 2006), a State Government may constitute a body to be known as the State Commission for Protection of Child Rights (SCPCR) to exercise the powers conferred upon, and to perform the functions assigned to State Commission under Chapter III of the Act. According to sub-section 1 of section 36 of the Commissions for Protection of Child Rights, Act, 2005 (Central Act 4 of 2006) the State Government may, by notification, make rules to carry out the provisions of this Act.

3. According to sub-section (1) of sections 13 read with section 24 of the said Act, the State Commission shall perform all or any of the following functions namely:-

- (a) examine and review the safeguards provided by or under any law for the time being in force for the protection of child rights and recommend measures for their effective implementation;
- (b) present to the State Government, annually and at such other intervals, as the Commission may deem fit, reports upon the working of those safeguards;
- (c) inquire into violation of child rights and recommend initiation of proceedings in such cases;
- (d) examine all factors that inhibit the enjoyment of rights of children affected by terrorism, communal violence, riots, natural disaster, domestic violence, HIV/AIDS, trafficking, maltreatment, torture and exploitation, pornography and prostitution and recommend appropriate remedial measures;
- (e) look into the matters relating to children in need of special care and protection including children in distress, marginalized and disadvantaged children, children in conflict with law, juveniles, children without family and children of prisoners and recommend appropriate remedial measures;
- (f) study treaties and other international instruments and undertake periodical review of existing policies, programmes and other activities on child rights and make recommendations for their effective implementation in the best interest of children;
- (g) undertake and promote research in the field of child rights;
- (h) spread child rights literacy among various sections of the society and promote awareness of the safeguards available for protection of these rights through publications, the media, seminars and other available means;
- (i) inspect or cause to be inspected any juvenile custodial home, or any other place of residence or institution meant for children, under the control of the State Government or any other authority, including any institution run by a social organization; where children are detained or lodged for the purpose of treatment, reformation or protection and take up with these authorities for remedial action, if found necessary;
- (j) inquire into complaints and take suo motu notice of matters relating to:-
 - (i) deprivation and violation of child rights;

- (ii) non-implementation of laws providing for protection and development of children;
 - (iii) non-compliance of policy decisions, guidelines or instructions aimed at mitigating hardships to and ensuring welfare of the children and to provide relief to such children or take up the issues arising out of such matters with appropriate authorities; and
- (k) such other functions as it may consider necessary for the promotion of child rights and any other matter incidental to the above functions.

4. In pursuance to above said provisions the Director of Social Defence in the letter second read above has sent necessary proposals for constitution of the State Commission for Protection of Child Rights with certain posts and infrastructure at a total cost of Rs.52,43,891/- (Rupees Fifty two lakh forty three thousand eight hundred and ninety one only)
