STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

I

Act 14 of 1961.- In pursuance of the Government policy of abolition of intermediaries, it is considered desirable to abolish all the hereditary village offices, viz., Patels, Shanbhogs, Kulkarnis and inferior village servants in order to put the Revenue Administration at the point where it touches the people most, in consonance with the modern spirit. Moreover, these offices are a relic of the old feudal system and Government considers that the time has come to abolish them. The present Bill, therefore, provides for the abolition of hereditary village offices.

Sub-clause (3) of clause 1 of the Bill would enable Government to proceed with the abolition of these hereditary village offices in stages. This is essential because the abolition of these offices and the replacement by stipendiary ones involves large financial commitments and other administrative problems.

Clauses 4 of the Bill provides for the abolition of all hereditary village offices together with their incidents. It provides for the resumption of all lands granted or continued in respect of or annexed to hereditary village offices by the State and makes them liable to land revenue.

Clause 5 provides for the regrant of the resumed lands to the holder of the village offices.

Clause 6 of the Bill provides for the regrant of the resumed lands to authorised holders.

In order to obviate any hardship caused to persons holding unauthorisedly any land resumed under sub-clause (3) of clause (4), provisions have been made in clause 7 permitting Government to regrant resumed lands to the unauthorised holders on certain conditions.

Clauses 10 and 11 of the Bill provide for the payment of compensation to the holder of village offices.

The other clauses provide for preferring of the appeals against the awards made by the Deputy Commissioner, framing of rules, saving of obligations and liabilities, etc.

II

Amending Act 8 of 1968.—The Mysore Village Offices Abolition Act, 1961 was brought into force from 1st February 1963. Sub-section (2) of section 9 of the Act provides that a holder of a Village Office entitled to payment of relief shall make an application to the Deputy Commissioner within one year from the appointment date. The operation of the Mysore Village Offices Abolition Act was stayed by the High Court and later by the Supreme Court on the petitions of some Village Officers. The Supreme Court in its order dated 21st January 1966 have since upheld the validity of the Mysore Village Offices Abolition Act and dismissed the petitions. Since the time limit of one year for making applications for relief by the Village Officers expired long back and in view of the fact that there have been repeated representations from Village Officers for extending the time limit, it was considered necessary to amend the Act, so as to provide an opportunity to the Village Officers to obtain relief. In view of the urgency and as the Legislature was not in session, an Ordinance was promulgated. The Act is intended to replace the Ordinance.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 2nd December 1967 as No. 271 at page. 3–4.)

III

Amending Act 13 of 1978.—The lands granted to hereditary village officers whose offices were abolished were regranted to them so that they may continue to enjoy the land. But it transpired that in most cases such lands have been disposed off by the ex-village officer and that he was left with no land to earn out his livelihood. It was therefore considered that such transfers be voided and the lands restored to the ex-village officers. As the State Legislature was not in session the Karnataka Village Offices (Amendment) Ordinance, 1975 was issued for the purpose.

The Act is to replace the said Ordinance. Transfers made with the permission of the State Government or the co-operative societies and nationalised Banks etc., are how ever saved.

(Published in Karnataka Gazette (Extraordinary) Part IV-2A dated 2nd February 1976 as No. 635 at page. 4.)

IV

Amending Act 27 of 1984.—The enfranchised inam lands in the old Madras area, viz., Bellary District and Kollegal Taluk of Mysore District were enfranchised (Freed from encumbrance) by the then Government of Madras and they were transferable and heritable. Inam title deeds were also issued.

On account of the amendment of the Karnataka Village Officers Act, 1961 (Act 14 of 1961) by Act 13 of 1978, the occupancy of lands regranted under the said Act become non-transferable unless the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner was obtained on payment of an amount equal to fifteen times the full assessment of the land. The Act did not distinguish between enfranchised inams and other inams and thereby new restrictions were attracted to the transfer of enfranchised inam lands. In view of the representations received, it is intended to suitably amend the Act in order to mitigate the rigour of the restriction.

Hence the Act.

V

Amending Act 47 of 1986.—The Karnataka Village Offices Abolition Act, 1961 prohibits transfer of lands regranted under sub-section (1) of Section 5 for a period of 15 years from the date of commencement of the Karnataka Village Offices Abolition (Amendment) Act, 1978, i.e., 7th August 1978 otherwise than by partition among members of the Hindu Joint Family or by a transfer in favour of the State Government, a co-operative Society or a bank as security for loans granted for improvement of such land or for acquiring cattle or agricultural implements for cultivation of such land.

It is considered necessary to enlarge the scope of sub-section (5) of section 5 of the said Act to enable the Banks. Co-operative Societies and Government to advance crop loans on the security of the lands regranted under the Act and to remove the difficulties in the way of the said regrantees obtaining “Crop Loans” advanced by the State Government. Co-operative Society or a Bank on the security of such lands.

Hence the Act.

VI

Amending Act 22 of 2000.- Note.- While repealing certain spent and obsolete laws certain consequential amendments are made to certain Acts including this Act.

* * * *

Amending Act 22 of 2003.—Sub-section (3) of section 5 and section 7A of the Karnataka Village Offices Abolition Act, 1961 prohibits transfer of re-granted land within a period of 15 years from the date of commencement of section 1 and section 7A of the Karnataka Village Offices Abolition (Amendment) Act, 1978. They have come into force with effect from 7.8.1978. The fifteen years period has already expired in the year 1993. Farmers are selling their land and thereby losing their lands which were granted to them by the Government earlier. Therefore, in order to safeguard the interest of farmers it is considered necessary to amend the said Act to prohibit transfer of re-granted land for a period of fifteen years from the date of re-grant made on or after the commencement of the Karnataka Village Offices Abolition (Amendment) Act, 2003

Hence the Bill.
