(ii) Such staff shall work under the direction of the Election Commission and shall be in its disciplinary control till the Electoral Roll is prepared or completion of election process, as the case may be.

43. Election of Representatives of Sarpanches:- As soon as notification under Section 209 of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 as extended to the Union Territory, Chandigarh, is issued by the Government to hold the election of the members of the Panchayat Samiti, the Director of Panchayats, Union Territory, Chandigarh, shall initiate the process of the preparation of such list which shall contain the names and addresses of the Sarpanches of the Gram Panchayats falling under the jurisdiction of a Panchayat Samiti and shall publish it by pasting the names at some conspicuous places in his office, the office of the Panchayat Samiti concerned and the Sub-Divisional Magistrate :

(a) Any Sarpanch whose name has not been included in the list may file a claim with the Director of Panchayats, U.T., Chandigarh, for inclusion of his name within three days of the publication of the list.

(b) Any elector from the concerned Panchayat Samiti may file any objection with the concerned Director of Panchayats, U.T., Chandigarh, regarding inclusion of any name of person who is not a Sarpanch.

(2) The concerned Director of Panchayat, U.T., Chandigarh shall summon such objector and may dispose of claim or objection after summary inquiry within three days from the receipt of the claim or objection and publish the final list in the manner given under sub-rule (1) :

Provided that any clerical or printing error may be rectified by the Director of Panchayat, U.T., Chandigarh at any time thereafter.

44. Appointment of Returning Officer:- (1) The Election Commission may appoint Returning Officer for conduct of such election as prescribed in these rules.

(2) The Election Commission shall fix a schedule of election of representative from and by Sarpanches of Gram Panchayats as specified in clause (b) of the sub-section (1) of Section 99 of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 as extended to the Union Territory, Chandigarh and hold election to elect the representatives of the Sarpanches in accordance with the provisions of these rules as far as practicable.

(3) The election of representatives of the Sarpanches of every Panchayat Samiti shall be notified by the Government.

45. Election of Chairman of Panchayat samiti and Zila Parishad :- (1) After the election of directly elected members and representatives of Sarpanches in case of Panchayat is notified by the Government and the above member have taken the oath of affirmation under Section 104 of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 as extended to the Union Territory, Chandigarh, the Deputy Commissioner or any other officer appointed by him in this behalf, not below the rank of Extra Assistant Commissioner shall call a meeting as laid down under Section 105 and 168 of the Punjab Panchayati Raj Act, 1994 as extended to the Union Territory, Chandigarh, after giving seven days' notice in Form-XI to such members to elect Chairman and

Vice-Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, as the case may be, in separate meeting in accordance with the provisions of these rules:

Provided that where the seat of Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, as the case may be, is reserved for Scheduled Castes or Women, the proposer or seconder shall propose or second the name of the persons belonging to such reserved categories only.

(2) Two-thirds of the total number of members shall constitute a quorum.

(3) If at the first meeting there be no quorum as specified in sub-rule (2), the Presiding Officer shall adjourn the meeting.

(4) When a meeting is adjourned under sub-rule (3), another meeting shall be convened by the Presiding Officer by giving not less than twenty four hours' notice to the members.

(5) No quorum shall be necessary for the second meeting.

(6) As soon as the members have assembled at the appointed time and place, the Presiding Officer shall call upon the members present to propose candidates for the two offices and every proposal shall also be seconded by a member. The names of the candidates, their proposers and seconders shall be recorded in Form-XII and read out by the Presiding Officer to the members present.

(7) If there are two or more such candidates for the seat of Chairman and Vice-Chairman the votes of the members present at the meeting shall be taken by the ballot in Form-XIII.

The copy of the result of the election in respect of Chairman and Vice-Chairman of Panchayat Samiti or Zila Parishad, as the case may be, shall be immediately sent by the concerned officer to the Election Commission and the Government and a certified copy of the result may also be given to the elected candidate.

46. Powers of Election Commission to issue instructions:- The Commission may from time to time issue instructions to carry out the preparation of electoral rolls and conduct of election. The instructions so issued by the Commission shall be complied with by the concerned officer and officials.

47. Final Authority for the interpretation of rules:- (1) If any question arises regarding the interpretation of the rules otherwise than in connection with an election petition which has actually been presented, it shall be referred by the person interested or the official concerned to the Government whose decision shall be final.

(2) In case any doubt over interpretation of any of these rules arises or if any procedure which has not been prescribed in detail in these rules and become necessary to determine for conduct of election, the explanation and procedure as such given in Representation of Peoples Act, 1951 and rules framed thereunder on that question/subject shall be so construed or followed, as the case may be.

47-A. Setting up of Election Tribunal:- (1) An Election Tribunal for the Union Territory, Chandigarh, shall be constituted by the Government (Administrator).

(2) The Government shall, by notification in the Official Gazette, appoint an IAS or Class I Officer of the Government having adequate administrative, legal or magisterial experience, as the Presiding Officer of the Election Tribunal.

48. (1) No election shall be called in question except by an Election Petition presented to the Election Tribunal within fifteen days from the date of the publication of the result of the election.

(2) An election petition calling in question any election may be presented on the ground specified in sub-rule (1) of rule 49 by an candidate at such election.

(3) A petitioner shall join as respondents to his petition all the candidates at the election.

49. Contents of Petition :- (1) an election petition :-

- (a) shall contain a concise statement of the material facts on which the petitioner relies;
 - (c) shall, with sufficient particulars, set forth the ground or grounds on which the election is called in question; and
 - (c) shall be signed by the petitioner and verified in the manner laid down in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (5 of 1908), for the verification of pleadings.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3) if the Tribunal is of opinion :-
- (a) that on the date of his election a returned candidate was not qualified or was disqualified, to be chosen as such under this Act, or
 - (b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his agent or by any other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his agents, or
 - (c) that any nomination paper has been improperly rejected, or
 - (d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected :-
 - (i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination, or
 - (ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interest of the returned candidate by a person other than that candidate or his agent or a person acting with the consent of such candidate or agent, or
 - (iii) by the improper acceptance or refusal of any vote or reception of any vote which is void, or
 - (iv) by the non-compliance with the provisions of the Act or of any rules or orders made thereunder.

the Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(3) If in the opinion of the Tribunal, a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent of any corrupt practice, but the Tribunal is satisfied :-

- (a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the orders, and without the consent of the candidate;

- (b) that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the Commission of corrupt practices at the election; and then, the Tribunal may decide that the election of the returned candidate is not void.
- (c) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agents.

49-A. Procedure before the Election Tribunal :- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act and of the rules made thereunder, every election petition shall be tried by the Election Tribunal, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the procedure contained in the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) to the trial of suits :

Provided that the Election Tribunal shall have the discretion to refuse, for reasons to be recorded, in writing, to examine any witness or witnesses, if it is of the opinion that the evidence of such witness or witnesses is not material for the decision of the election petition or that the party tendering such witness or witnesses is doing so on frivolous grounds or with a view to delay the proceedings of the election petition.

(2) The provisions of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872 (Central Act 1 of 1872) shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, be deemed to apply in all respects to the trial of an election petition.

49-B. Decision of the Election Tribunal :- At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the Election Tribunal may make an order for - -

- (a) dismissing the election petition; or
- (b) declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void; or
- (c) declaring the election of all or any of the returned candidates to be void and the petitioner or any other candidate to have been duly elected.

49-C. Other orders to be made by the Election Tribunal :- (1) Where any charge is made in the petition of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election, the Election Tribunal shall also make an order at the time of making an order under rule 49-B indicating, - -

- (i) Whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election, and the nature of that corrupt practice ;
- (ii) the names of all persons, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty of any corrupt practice; and
- (iii) the total amount of costs payable and specifying the persons by whom these costs shall be paid and the persons to whom these costs shall be paid:

Provided that a person who is not a party to the petition, shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) unless, - -

- (a) he has been given notice to appear before the Election Tribunal and to show cause why he should not be so named; and

- (b) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness, who has already been examined by the Election Tribunal and has given evidence against him, of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

49-D Grounds for declaring election to be void:- (1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2), if the Election Tribunal is of the opinion, - -

- (a) that on the date of his election, a returned candidate was not qualified, or was disqualified to be chosen to fill the seat under the Constitution of India or under these rules; or
- (b) that any corrupt practice has been committed by a returned candidate or his election agent or by other person with the consent of a returned candidate or his election agent; or
- (c) that any nomination has been improperly rejected; or
- (d) that the result of the election, in so far as it concerns a returned candidate, has been materially affected, -
 - (i) by the improper acceptance of any nomination ; or
 - (ii) by any corrupt practice committed in the interest of the returned candidate by an agent other than this election agent; or
 - (iii) by the improper reception, refusal or rejection of any vote or the reception of any vote which is void; or
 - (iv) by any non-compliance with the provisions of the Constitution of India or of this Act or of any rules or orders made under this Act;

the Election Tribunal shall declare the election of the returned candidate to be void.

(2) If in the opinion of the Election Tribunal, a returned candidate has been guilty by an agent, other than his election agent, of any corrupt practice, but the Election Tribunal is satisfied :-

- (a) that no such corrupt practice was committed at the election by the candidate or his election agent, and every such corrupt practice was committed contrary to the orders, and without the consent of the candidate or his election agent;
- (b) that the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the Commission of corrupt practice at the election; and then the Election Tribunal may decide that the election of the returned candidate is not void.
- (c) that in all other respects, the election was free from any corrupt practice on the part of the candidate or any of his agent;

49-E. Grounds for which a candidate other than the returned candidate may be declared to have been elected :- If any person who has filed an election petition has in addition to calling in question the election of the returned candidate, claimed a declaration that he himself or any other candidate has been duly elected and the Election Tribunal is of the opinion :-

- (a) that in fact the petitioner or such other candidate received a majority of the valid votes ; or

- (b) that but for the votes obtained by the returned candidate by corrupt practices, the petitioner or such other candidate would have obtained a majority of the valid votes;

the Election Tribunal shall, after declaring the election of the returned candidate to be void, declare the petitioner or such other candidate, as the case may be, to have been duly elected.

49-F. Procedure in case of an equality of votes :- If during the trial of an election petition, it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidate at the election and that the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, then, –

- (a) any decision made by the Returning Officer under the provisions of this Act shall in so far as it determines the question between these candidates, be effective also for the purposes of the final decision of the election petition; and
- (b) if that question is not determined by such a decision, the Election Tribunal shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot then falls, has received an additional vote.

49-G. Communication of orders of the Tribunal :- The Election Tribunal shall, as soon as may be, after the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, intimate the substance of the decision to the Election Commission and as soon as may be thereafter, shall forward to the Election Commission an authenticated copy of the decision.

49-H. Transmission of order to the prescribed authority etc. and its publication :- As soon as may be, after the receipt of any order made by the Election Tribunal under rule 49-B or 49-C, the Election Commission shall forward copies of the order to the prescribed authority and shall cause the order to be published in the Official Gazette.

49-I. Effect of orders of the Tribunal :- (1) Subject to the provisions contained in rule 49-K relating to the stay of operation of an order of the Election tribunal, every such order shall take effect as soon as it is pronounced by the Election Tribunal.

(2) Where by an order under rule 49-B, the election of a returned candidate is declared to be void, acts and proceedings in which that candidate has, participated as a member of a panchayat or a Municipality before the date of such declaration shall not be invalidated by reasons of that order, nor shall such candidate be subjected to any liability or penalty on the ground of such participation.

49-J. Appeal to High Court :- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, an appeal shall lie to the High Court on any question whether it pertains to law or fact from every order made by an Election Tribunal under rule 49-B or rule 49-C.

(2) An appeal under sub-rule (1) above shall be preferred, within a period of thirty days from the date of the order of the Election Tribunal passed under rule 49-B or rule 49-C :

Provided that the High Court may entertain an appeal after the expiry of the said period of thirty days, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.

49-K. Application for stay of operation of order :- (1) An application may be made to the Election Tribunal for stay of operation of an order made by it under rule 49-B or rule 49-C before the expiry of the period allowed for appealing therefrom and the Election Tribunal may, on sufficient cause being shown and on such terms and conditions, as it may think fit, stay the operation of the order, but no application for stay shall be made to the Election Tribunal after an appeal has been preferred to the High Court.

(2) Where an appeal has been preferred against an order made under rule 49-B or rule 49-C, the High Court may, on sufficient cause being shown and on such terms and conditions, as it may think fit, stay the operation of the order appealed from.

(3) When the operation of an order is stayed by the Election Tribunal or, as the case may be, by the High Court, the order shall be deemed never to have taken effect under sub-rule (1) of rule 49-I and a copy of the stay order shall immediately be sent by the Election Tribunal or, as the case may be, by the High Court, to the Election Commission.

49-L. Procedure in appeal :- (1) Subject to the provisions of these rules, every appeal against any order of the Election Tribunal, shall be heard and decided by the High Court as nearly as may be in accordance with the procedure applicable to the hearing and decision of an appeal from any final order passed by a court subordinate to the High Court in the exercise of its original civil jurisdiction and all the provisions of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Central Act 5 of 1908) and Rules and Orders of the High Court (including provisions as to the furnishing of security and the execution of any order of the court), shall so far as may be, apply in relation to such appeal.

(2) As soon as an appeal is decided the High Court shall intimate the substance of the decision to the Election Commission and as soon as may be thereafter, shall send to the Election Commission an authenticated copy of the decision.

(3) On the receipt of the decision, the Election Commission shall :-

- (a) forward copies, thereof to the authorities to which copies of the order of the Election Tribunal were forwarded under rule 49-C; and
- (b) Cause the decision to be published in the Official Gazette.

49-M. Payment of costs out of security deposits and return of such deposits :- (1) If in any order as to costs under the provisions of rule 50, there is a direction for payment of costs by any party to any person, such costs shall, if these have not already been paid, be paid in full, or so far as possible, out of the security deposits and the further security deposit, if any, made by such party under rule 50 on an application made in writing in that behalf, within a period of one year from the date of such order, to the Election Tribunal by the person in whose favour the costs have been awarded.

(2) If there is any balance of the security deposits referred to in sub-rule (1), is left after making payment of the costs referred to in that sub-rule, such balance or where no costs have been awarded or no application, as aforesaid has been made within the said period of one year, the whole of the said security deposits, may, on an application made in that behalf in writing to the Election Tribunal by the person by whom the deposits have been made, or if such person dies after making such deposits by the legal representative of such person, be returned to the said person or to his legal representative, as the case may be.

49-N. Execution of orders as to costs :- Any order as to costs under the provisions of these rules may be produced before a court of original jurisdiction within the local limits of whose jurisdiction any person directed by such order to pay any sum of money has a place of residence or of business, and such court shall execute the order or cause the same to be executed in the same manner and by the same procedure, as if it were a decree for the payment of money made by itself in a suit :

Provided that where any such costs or any portion thereof can be recovered by an application made under sub-rule (1) of rule 49-M, no application shall lie under this rule within a period of one year from the date of such order unless it is for any recovery of the balance of any costs which has been left unrealised after an application has been made under that sub-rule owing to the insufficiency of the amount of security deposits referred to in that sub-rule.

50. Deposit to be made:- (1) At the time of, or before, presenting an election petition, the petitioner or petitioners shall deposit in the treasury a sum of rupees two hundred towards security.

(2) If the petitioner by whom the deposit referred to in sub-rule (1) withdraws his election petition, and in any other case, after, final orders have been passed on the election petition, the deposit shall, after such amount as may be ordered to be paid as costs, charges and expenses has been deducted, be returned to the Petitioner by whom it was made, and if the petitioner dies during the course of the enquiry into the election petition, any such deposit if made by him, shall after the amount of such costs as may be ordered to be paid, have been deducted, be returned to his legal heirs.

(3) All applications for the refund of a deposit shall be made to the Election Tribunal who shall pass orders thereon in accordance with these rules.

51. Petitions to be dismissed for non-compliance of rules :- If any of the provisions of rules 49 and 50 has not been complied with, the Election Tribunal may pass an order dismissing the election petition and such order shall be final.

52. Withdrawal of Petitions:- An election petition may be withdrawn only by leave of the Election Tribunal.

53. The following sets of rules are hereby repealed, namely:- Repeal.

- 1) The Punjab Gram Panchayat Election Rules, 1960 ;
- 2) The Punjab Panchayat Samitis (Primary Members) Election Rules, 1961;
- 3) The Punjab Panchayat Samitis Co-option of Members Rules, 1961;
