(a) where any charge is made in the petitioner of any corrupt practice having been committed at the election or [nomination], regarding --

(i) a finding whether any corrupt practice has or has not been proved to have been committed at the election or [nomination] and the nature of that corrupt practice; and

(ii) the names of all person, if any, who have been proved at the trial to have been guilty if any corrupt practice and the nature of that practice; and

(b) fixing the total amount of costs payable, and specifying the persons by and to whom costs shall be paid:

Provided that person who is not a party to the petition shall not be named in the order under sub-clause (ii) of (a) unless--

(a) he has been given notice to appear before the Judge and show-cause why he should not be so named; and

(b) if he appears in pursuance of the notice, he has been given an opportunity of cross-examining any witness who has already been examined by the Judge and has given evidence against him of calling evidence in his defence and of being heard.

25. Procedure in case if equality of votes.--

If during the trial of an election petition it appears that there is an equality of votes between any candidates at the election or [nomination] and that an addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected or [nominated], then the Judge shall decide between them by lot and proceed as if the one on whom the lot fell had received an additional vote.

26. Finality of decision.---

(1) No appeal shall lie against the decision of the Judge on the petition.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Judge on the petition may, within thirty days from the date of such decision, apply to the High Court for revision on any of the following grounds:-

(a) that the decision is contrary of law;

(b) that the Judge has exercised jurisdiction not vested in him by law or has failed to exercise a jurisdiction vested in him by law, but subject to such orders as the High Court may pass thereon, such decision shall be final.

COMMENT

Scope.--Under Section 26 of the Act, revision against the impugned order is limited to the extent to see the legality of the decision being not contrary to law. The jurisdiction to entertain the petition under Section 20 of the Act was vested with the Court below and on facts and circumstances the finding recorded vide impugned order is not contrary to law. [Indrajeet Singh v. Jagdish Prasad, 2003 (3) MPHT 460 at 463 (MP) (Jabalpur Bench).]

27. Disqualification arising out of corrupt practices.--

If any person after the commencement of this Act, is, upon the trial of an election petition thereunder, found guilty of any corrupt practices, he shall, for a period of five years from the date on which such finding takes effect, be disqualified for voting at any election:

Provided that the State Government may, by notification, remove the disqualification incurred under this section with effect from such date as may be specified therein.

28. Corrupt practices.--

The following shall be deemed to be corrupt practices for the purpose of this Act:-

- (i) Bribery as defined in clause (1) of Section 123 of the Representation of the People Act, 1951 (43 of 1951);

145. Failure to give notice of an increase of rent.-Whoever fails to give notice of an increase of rent required by sub-sections (1) and (2) of Section 143 or gives notice of an increase of rent which in substance is untrue, he shall be punishable with fine which may extend to two hundred rupees.

146. New assessment list need not be prepared every year.-(1) The Council may, instead of making a new assessment every year, adopt the existing assessment, with such alteration as it thinks fit, as the assessments for each new year, giving to persons affected by such alterations the same notice of the altered valuation and assessment as would have been required if a new assessment had been prepared.

(2) The Council shall arrange for a survey for the purposes of assessments of each part of the Municipality at least once in four years.

(3) The provisions of Sections 134 to 140 shall, so far as may be, apply for the purposes of this section.

147. Responsibility for payment of property tax.-

The property tax leviable upon any land or building shall be paid by the owner thereof.

Explanation- For the purpose of this section a tenant of land or building or both, under a lease for any agreed period with a covenant for its renewal thereafter, shall be deemed to be owner thereof.

148. Right of occupier to recover from owner.- Any tax or sum leviable under this Act from the owner may be recovered from the occupier, and in such case such occupier shall, in the absence of any contract to the contrary, be entitled to recover the same from the owner and may deduct the same from any rent then or thereafter due by him to the owner:

Provided that the occupier shall not be liable for any such tax or sum due for a period prior to the date of commencement of his occupy.

149. Omitted.

150. Notice of transfer of titles, when to be given.-(1) Whenever the title in any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building is transferred, the transferor and the transferee shall, within three months of the registration of the deed of transfer, or if it be not registered, within three months of the execution of the instrument of transfer, or, if no such instrument be executed within ninety days after the transfer is effected, give notice in writing of such transfer to the Council.

(2) Every person liable for the payment of a tax on any property, who transfers his title to or over such property without giving notice of such transfer to the Council as aforesaid, shall, in addition to any other liability with he incurs through such neglect, continue to be liable for the payment of all such taxes payable in respect of the said property until he gives such notice or until the transfer is recorded in the Council's books:

Provided that nothing in this section shall affect the liability of the transferee for payment of the said tax or the prior claim of the Council on the property for the recovery thereof:

Provided further that the Council shall not recover more than the amount of the tax due in respect of the said property.

(3) In the event of the death of the person in whom title to any land or building or in any part or share of any land or building vests, the person who as heir or otherwise takes the title of the deceased by descent or devise shall, within three months from the death of the deceased, give notice of this title to the Council in writing.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to affect the liability of the heir or devisees for the said taxes or to affect the prior claim of the Council for the recovery of the taxes due thereupon.

151. Form of notice of transfer of titles.-(1) The notice to be given under Section 150 shall be in such forms as may be prescribed by rules.

(2) On receipt of any such notice the Council may, if it thinks necessary, require the production of the instrument of transfer, if any, or a copy thereof.

152 to 155. Omitted.

156. Tables for tolls to be shown on demand-A Council imposing any toll under this Act shall cause to be kept, at each place where such toll is to be collected, a table in Hindi Language, written in Devnagri Script, showing the amount leviable in all cases provided for in the rules, including the terms, if any, on which the liability to pay such tolls may be compounded by periodical payment, and it shall be the duty of every person authorized to demand payment of a toll to show such table on the request of any person to whom such demand is made.

157. Procedure in case of non-payment of tolls or octroi.- (1) If any toll leviable under this Act is not paid on demand, the person appointed to collect it may seize and detain such portion of the load of any animal or vehicle on which the toll is chargeable, as will, in his opinion suffice to defray the amount due in respect of such toll and in the absence of any load on an animal or vehicle on which the toll is chargeable, or in the event of its valuable being insufficient to defray the amount due, he may seize and detain the animal or vehicle.

(2) The person on seizing or detaining the goods or animal or vehicle, as the case may be, shall, on such seizure or detention give a list of the property seized or detained to the person in charge of such property at the time of its seizure or detention and shall along with such list deliver to him a notice in the form prescribed by rules to the effect that the property so seized or detained shall be sold by auction at the place and time to be specified therein. A copy of each list of the property and the notice shall forthwith be sent to the Chief Municipal Officer or to such other officer as he may authorize in this behalf.

(3) When the property seized under sub-section (1) is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it together with the amount of octroi or toll chargeable is likely to exceed its value, the same shall be taken forthwith to the Chief Municipal Officer or such officer shall proceed to sell it forthwith.

(4) If at any time before the sale is completed the amount due, together with all charges incurred in connection with the seizure or detention is tendered to the Chief Municipal Officer or to the officer authorized as aforesaid the property seized shall forthwith be released.

(5) If no such tender is made, the property may be sold and the proceeds of the sale applied to the payment of-

(i) the amount due on account of toll;

(ii) the charges incurred in connection with the seizure, detention and sale.

(6) The surplus proceeds shall be forthwith credited to the Municipal fund and notice of such credit shall be given at the same time to the person in whose possession then property was at the time of seizure or detention. If such person claims the surplus by written application to the Chief Municipal Officer within one year from the date of the notice given under this sub-section, the Chief Municipal Officer shall refund the surplus to him.

(7) Any such surplus not so claimed shall be the property of the Council.

158 to 159. Omitted.

160. Recovery of public auction or private contract.- Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Municipality may, by public auction or private contract, lease the recovery of any of the taxes and fee which may be imposed under this Act, subject to the condition and limitation, if any, prescribed by the State Government in this behalf.

161. Method of assessment of duty on transfer of immovable property.- (1) The duty imposed by the Indian Stamp Act, 1899 (II of 1899), on instruments of sale, gift and usufructuary mortgage, respectively of immovable property, shall in the case of instruments affecting immovable property, shall in the case of instruments affecting immovable property situated within the limits of any Municipality and executed on or after the date on which the provisions of this Act come into force within Municipality be increased by one percentum on the value of the property so situated, or in the case of an usufructuary mortgage on the amount secured by the instrument as set forth in the instrument:

Provided that nothing herein shall apply in case of the transfer of property where the value of the property so transferred or in the case of usufructuary mortgage the amount so secured does not exceed two thousand rupees.

(2) For the purpose of this section, Section 27 of the Indian Stamp Act 1899 (II of 1899), shall be read as if it specifically required the particulars referred to therein to be set forth separately in respect of-

(a) property situated in any Municipal area;

(b) property not situated in any Municipal area.

(3) The State Government shall, every year, pay to each Council from the Consolidated Fund of the State a grant-in-aid approximately equal to the extra duty realized under sub-section (1) in respect of the property situated within the area of each such Municipality.

(4) The State Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this section.

162. Power of State Government to require Council to impose taxes.- Whenever it appears to the State Government that the balance of Municipal fund of any Council or its revenue is insufficient for the discharge of its duties or obligatory functions imposed upon it by the Act or for meeting the expenditure incurred under Section 324 or for the performance of any duties in respect of which it shall have been declared under section 327 to have committed default, the State Government may require the Council to impose within the Municipal area any tax which it is empowered to impose under Section 127 or to enhance any existing tax in such manner or to such extent as the State Government considers, fit, and the Council shall forthwith proceed to impose or enhance in accordance with the requisition such tax under the provisions of this Chapter, as if a resolution of the Council had been passed for the purpose under Section 129 or 130, as the case may be:

Provided that-

(a) the State Government shall take into consideration any objection which the Council or any inhabitant of the Municipality may make against the imposition or enhancement of such tax;

(b) it shall not be lawful for the Council to abandon or modify or to abolish such tax when imposed, without the sanction of the State Government.

(c) the State Government may, at any time by notification, abolish or reduce the amount or rate of any tax levied or enhanced under this section and the levy of the tax or the enhancement, except as to arrears thereto for accrued due, shall thereupon cease or be modified accordingly.

163. Tax not invalid for defect of form.- A tax imposed under this Act shall not be invalid for defect of form and where any property is described for the purpose of assessing any such tax, it shall be sufficient to describe it so that it shall be generally known and it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier.

CHAPTER VIII RECOVERY OF MUNICIPAL CLAIMS

164. Presentation of bills for taxes, rent and other claims-

(1) when any amount-

(a) which by or under any provisions of this Act, is declared to be recovered in the manner provided by this Chapter; or

(b) which, not being leviable under (1) of Section 157 or payable on demand on account of an octroi or a toll, is claimable as an amount or installment on account of any other tax which is being imposed or may hereafter be imposed in any Municipality; or

(c) which, on account of rent of any Municipal land, buildings, shops, gumits or any other property;

shall have become due, the Chief Executive Officer shall with the least practicable delay cause to be presented to the person liable for the payment thereof a bill for the sums claimed as due,

(2) Every such bill shall specify-

(a) the period for which; and

(b) the property, occupation or thing in respect of which the sum is claimed; and shall also give notice of-

(i) the liability incurred in default of payment; and

(ii) the time within which an appeal may be preferred as hereinafter provided against such claim.

(3) If the person to whom a bill has been presented as aforesaid does not, within 15 days from the presentation thereof, either-

(a) pay the sum claimed as due in the bill; or

(b) show cause to the satisfaction of the Chief Executive Officer or of such officer as the Municipality may appoint in this behalf, why he should not pay the same; or

(c) prefer an appeal in accordance with the provisions of Section 172 against the claims;

the Chief Executive Officer may cause to be served upon the person liable for the payment of the said sum a notice of demand in the form prescribed by rules.

(4) The sum claimed as due in the bill shall carry interest at the rate of 6 ¼ per centum per annum till the date it is paid and shall be recoverable along with the bill.

165. General power of recovery of arrears.

(1) If a person on whom a notice of demand has been served under sub-section (1) of Section 164 does not within fifteen days from the service of such notice pays the sum demanded in the notice, such sum with all cost of recovery and interest may be recovered on application of the Council to a Magistrate having jurisdiction within the limits of the Municipality, and such Magistrate may order recovery by distress and sale of any movable property or attachment and sale of immovable property belonging to such person within the limits of his jurisdiction:

Provided that no interest shall be so recovered in any case in which the Magistrate, for reasons to be recorded in writing, considers it inexpedient that interest should be charged.

(2) When there is no sufficient movable or immovable property belonging to such person within the jurisdiction of such Magistrate, the Magistrate may, on the application of the Council, grant a certificate, of the amount due on account of arrears, with fees, and interest, if any, and shall forward the certificate to the Magistrate within whose jurisdiction any movable or immovable property belonging to such person is or is believed to be; and the Magistrate receiving such certificate shall proceed to recover, by distress and sale of any movable property or attachment and sale of any immovable property belonging to the defaulter within the limits of his jurisdiction, the amount certified, with any further sum leviable on account of fees and shall remit the amount recovered to the Magistrate by whom the certificate was granted.

(3) The following property shall not be distrained under this section, namely--

- (a) the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the defaulter, his wife and children, and utensils used for cooking and drinking;
- (b) the tools of artisans;
- (c) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed grain and such cattle as may be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood;
- (d) books of account;
- (e) religious books and idols of worship.

166. Extent of special provisions of recovery taxes.--

(1) The provisions of Sections 167 to 170 shall apply to such Municipalities to which they have been specially applied by the State Government, by notification, and on such application the provisions of Section 165 shall not apply in respect of such Municipality.

(2) The State Government may by a like notification, suspend the operation of Section 167 to 170 in respect of Municipality and from such date as may be specified therein, and on and from the due date so specified every amount due on account of any tax therefore recoverable under the said section shall be recoverable on application to a Magistrate in the manner provided in Section 165.

167. (1) In what cases warrant may issue.--

If a person on whom a notice of demand has been served under sub-section (3) of Section 164 does not, within 15 days from the service of such notice pay the sum demanded in the notice, such sum with all cost of recovery may be recovered under a warrant in the form prescribed by rules or to the like effect signed by the Chief Municipal Officer --

- (i) by distress and sale of movable property belonging to such person; or
- (ii) by attachment and sale of the immovable property belonging to him:

Provided that, where any precautionary or other measures in respect of any such property have been taken by the State Government for the recovery of any sum claimed by it, no proceedings shall be taken or continued under this chapter, in respect of such property until the State Government's claim has been paid off.

(2) To whom the warrant should be addressed ---

The warrant shall be addressed--

- (a) where the property is in the Municipality, to an officer of the Municipality;
- (b) where the property is in another Municipality, to the Chief Municipal Officer to such Municipality;
- (c) where the property is within the limits of a Municipal Corporation, to the Municipal Commissioner of such Corporation;
- (d) where the property is in a Cantonment, to the Chief Officer of the Cantonment;
- (e) where the property is not within the limits of a Corporation, Municipality or Cantonment, to a Government Officer not below the rank of a Tehsildar;

Provided that such Chief Municipal Officer, Municipal Commissioner, Chief Officer or Government Officer may endorse such warrant to a subordinate officer.

(3) Power of entry under special order.---

It shall be lawful for any officer to whom a warrant issued under sub-section (1) is addressed if the warrant contains a special order authorising him in this behalf, but not otherwise, to break open at any time between sunrise and sunset, any outer or inner door or a window of the building in order to make the distress directed in the warrant, if he has a reasonable ground for believing that such building contains property which is liable to seizure under the warrant, and if after notifying his authority and purpose and duly demanding admittance, he cannot otherwise obtain admittance:

Provided that such officer shall not enter or break open the door of any apartment appropriated to the use of woman until he has given not less than three hours' notice of his intention and had given such woman an opportunity to withdraw.

(4) Warrant how to be executed.--

It shall also be lawful for such officer to distrain, wherever it may be found, any movable property or attach any immovable property of the person therein named as defaulter subject to the following conditions, exceptions and exemptions, namely:-

- (a) the following property shall not be distrained :-
 - (i) the necessary wearing apparel and bedding of the defaulter, his wife and children, and utensils used for cooking and drinking;
 - (ii) the tools of artisans;
 - (iii) when the defaulter is an agriculturist, his implements of husbandry, seed-grain, and such cattle as may be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood;
 - (iv) book of account;
 - (v) religious books and idols of worship;
- (b) the distress shall not be excessive, that is to say, the property distrained shall be as nearly as possible equal in value to the amount recoverable under the warrant, and if any articles have been distrained which, in the opinion of the Chief Municipal Officer or of the persons to whom the warrant was addressed should not have been so distrained, they shall forthwith be returned to the person from whom it was distrained;
- (c) the officer shall on distraining or attaching the property forthwith make an inventory thereof, and give to the person in possession thereof at the time of distress or attachment, a written notice in the form prescribed by rules that the said property will be sold as shall be specified in such notice;
- (d) when the property is immovable :-
 - (i) the attachment shall be made by an order prohibiting the defaulter from transferring or charging the property in any way, and all persons from taking any benefit from such transfer or charge;
 - (ii) the order shall be proclaimed at some place on or adjacent to the property by beat of drum or other customary mode, and a copy of the order shall be fixed on a conspicuous part of the property and upon a conspicuous part of the Municipal office and also when the property is land paying revenue to the State Government, in the office of the Tahsildar of the tahsil in which the land is situate;
- (e) any transfer of, charge on, the property attached or of any interest therein made without the written permission of the Council shall be void as against all claim of the Council enforceable under the attachment.

168. Sale of goods distrained.--

(1) When the property seized is subject to speedy and natural decay, or when the expense of keeping it in custody together with the amount to be levied is likely to exceed its value, the Chief Municipal Officer shall at once give notice to the person in whose possession the property was, when distrained, to the effect that it will be sold at once; and shall sell it accordingly unless the amount named in the warrant is forthwith paid.

(2) On the expiry of time specified in the notice served by the officer executing the warrant, the property distrained or attached, or in the case of immovable property, a sufficient portion thereof, if not sold at once under sub-section (1) may be sold by public auction under the orders of the Chief Municipal Officer unless the warrant is suspended by him or the sum due is paid by the defaulter together with all costs incidental to the notice, warrant, distress, attachment or detention of the property, as the case may be.

(3) Where the sum due together with costs is paid by the defaulter as aforesaid, any attachment levied on his property shall be deemed to be removed and the property if immovable shall be removed.

(4) All sales of immovable property under this section shall so far as may be practicable, be regulated by the procedure laid down in the rules made by the State Government in that behalf.

(5) The sale proceeds or such part thereof as may be sufficient shall be applied, first, in discharge of any sum due to the State Government in respect of such property and secondly, in discharge of the sum due to the Council and all such incidental costs as aforesaid.

(6) After sale of the immovable property auction as aforesaid, the Chief Municipal Officer shall put the person declared to be the purchaser in possession of the same and shall grant him a certificate to the effect that he has purchased the property to which the certificate refers.

(7) It shall be lawful for the Council to offer a bid in the case of any immovable property put up for auction, provided the previous approval of the Collector is obtained to such bidding.

(8) The surplus proceeds shall be forthwith credited to the Municipal Fund and notice of such credit shall be given to the person in whose possession the property was at the time of distraint or attachment. If such person claims the surplus by written application to the Chief Municipal Officer within three years from the date of the notice given under this sub-section, the Chief Municipal officer shall refund the surplus to him.

(9) Any such surplus not so claimed shall be the property of the Council.

169. Sale outside Municipal area.--

Where the warrant is to be executed outside the Municipal area the Chief Municipal Officer may, by endorsement, direct the officer to whom the warrant is addressed, to sell the property distrained or attached; and in such case it shall be lawful for such officer to sell the property and to do all things incidental to the sale in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section and to exercise the powers and perform the duties of the Chief Municipal Officer under sub-section (1) and (2) of section 168 in respect of such sale except the power of suspending the warrant. Such officer shall, after deducting all costs of recovery incurred by him, remit the amount recovered under the warrant to the Chief Municipal Officer who shall dispose of the same in accordance with the provisions of the preceding section.

170. Fees and costs chargeable.-

The fees for ---

- (a) every notice issued under section 164;

(b) every warrant issued under sub-section (1) of Section 167, or distress or attachment made under sub-section (4) of the said section;

(c) the maintenance of any live-stock seized under sub-section (4) of Section 167.

shall be chargeable at such rates as the Council may, by bye-laws, determine and they shall be included in the costs of recovery to be levied under Section 167.

171. Summary proceedings may be taken against persons about to leave the City.-

(1) If the Chief Executive Officer shall, at any time, have reason to believe that any person from whom any sum, recoverable under the provisions of this chapter, is due or is about to become due, is about to leave the Municipal limits the Chief Municipal Officer may cause a bill for the sum due or about to become due to be presented to him directing the immediate payment thereof.

(2) If, on presentation of such bill, the said person does not forthwith pay the said sum or does not furnish security to the satisfaction of the Chief Municipal Officer, the amount shall be levied by distress and sale of his movable property or by attachment and sale of his immovable property in the manner specified in this chapter except that it shall not be necessary to serve upon him any notice of demand and the Chief Executive Officers warrant for distress and sale may be issued and executed without any delay.

172. Appeal to Civil Judge.--

(1) Appeals, against any claim included in a bill presented in accordance with the provisions of this Act, or the rules made thereunder, be made to the Civil Judge, Class I, having jurisdiction over the Municipal area and if there be no Civil Judge, Class I, at the headquarters of the Municipality the Civil Judge, Class II having jurisdiction at such headquarters if there be no such Civil Judge Class II at the headquarters to the Civil Judge at the headquarters having jurisdiction and in case of more than one such Civil Judge at the headquarters having jurisdiction, as the case may be, to such one of them as the District Judge may specify.

(2) No such appeal shall be heard and determined unless --

(a) the appeal is brought within 15 days next after presentation of the bill complained of ;

(b) an application, in writing, stating the ground on which the claim of Council is disputed, has been made to the Council in the case of a rate on building or land within the time fixed in the notice given in accordance with the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder or of the assessment or alteration thereof, according to which the bill is prepared;

(c) the amount claimed from the appellant has been deposited by him in the Municipal office.

(3) The decision of the Civil Judge in an appeal made under sub-section (1), shall, subject to the decision in revision by the Court to which appeals against the decision of such Civil Judge ordinarily lie, be final.

173. Amount of tax, etc. to be final.--

(1) The amount of every sum claimed from any person under the Act on account of tax or otherwise, shall, subject and decision in appeal or revision, if any, preferred under Section 172, be final.

(2) Effect shall be given by the Council to every decision in any appeal or revision against any such claim.

174. Liability of Buildings, lands, etc., for taxes.-

All sums due from any person in respect of taxes on any land or buildings shall, subject to prior payment of any land revenue in respect of it due to the Government, be a first charge upon the said land or building and upon any movable property found within or upon such land or building and belonging to the said person:

Provided that no arrears of any such tax shall be recoverable from any occupier who is not the owner, if such arrears are for a period during which the occupier was not in Occupation.

175. Receipts to be given for all payments.-

For every sum paid on account of any tax under this Act, a receipt shall be tendered by the person receiving these payments, stating the sum and the tax on account of which it has been paid.

176. Omitted

177. Saving.-(1) No distress or sale made under this Act shall be deemed unlawful on account of an error, defect or want of form in the bill, notice, warrant of distress, inventory, or other proceeding relating thereto.

- (d) sell or lease the land forming such street or any part thereof or acquired for the purpose of forming such street, if not required for the purpose of such street or for any other purpose of this Act:

Provided that no public street shall be discontinued, permanently closed or used for any other purposes without the previous sanction of the State Government.

(2) In laying out, making, turning, diverting, widening, opening, enlarging or otherwise improving any public street, the Council may, in addition to the land required for the carriage-way and foot-ways and drains thereof, acquire the land required for the construction of houses and buildings to form the said street and, subject to the provisions of Section 109, may sell and dispose of such additional land in perpetuity or on lease for a term of years, with such stipulation as to the class and description of houses and buildings to be created thereon as it may think fit.

(3) If any person who has purchased or taken on lease the additional lands, subject to stipulation referred to in sub-section (2) fails to observe such stipulations he shall, without prejudice to any liability which he may have incurred under the agreement of sale or lease of the said land, be liable to be punished with a fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(4) The President may close temporarily any public street or part thereof for the purpose of repairs or of constructing any sewer, drain, culvert or bridge or for any other public purpose.

180. Power to require repairs, etc., of private streets.-(1) Where a Council considers that in any street not being a public street, or in any part of such street, within the Municipality, it is necessary for the public health, convenience or safety that any work should be done for the levelling, playing metalling, flagging, channeling, draining, lighting or cleaning thereof, the Council may, by the written notice, require the owner of owners of the street and the owners of the several lands or buildings fronting or adjoining the said street or abutting thereon, to carry out such work in such manner and with such time as may be specified in such notice.

(2) If the notice under sub-section (1) is not complied with such work may be executed by the Council, between such owners, and in such manner as it may think fit, regard being had, if it deems it necessary, to the amount and value of any work already done by the owners or occupiers of any such lands and buildings.

(3) After such work has been carried out by the owner or by the owners or on the failure of the owners to do so by the Council at the expenses of such owners, the street or part thereof in which such work has been done may, and on the joint requisition of a majority of the said owners shall, be declared by public notice, put up therein by the Council to be a public street.

181. Power to declare private street a public street.-(1) A Council may, at any time, by a notice exhibited in any private street or part thereof give intimation to declare the same a public street, and unless within one month next after such notice in first exhibited, the owner or the majority of the several owners of such private street or a part of the street, lodges or lodge objections thereto with the Council may, by a notice exhibited in such a street, or such part thereof, declare the same to be public street vested in the Council.

(2) If the owner or in case there are more than one owner a majority of owners of any private street request in writing to the Council to declare such street to be a public street, the Council may declare it to be so and on such declaration such street shall vest in the Council and become a public street.

(3) If in spite of the opposition of the majority of the owners of any private street, the Council considers it necessary to declare such street a public street it may do so on paying a reasonable compensation, which shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act, to the owners of the street.

182. Notice to be given of intention to lay out lands for buildings or for private streets.--

(1) Every person who intends--

- (a) to sell or lease out any land, subject to a covenant or agreement on the part of a purchaser or lessee, to erect buildings thereon;
- (b) to divide land, whether unbuilt or partly built, into building plots;
- (c) to use any land or a portion thereof or permit the same to be used for building purposes; or
- (d) to make or lay out a private street, whether it is intended to allow the public a right of passage or access over such street or not,

shall give notice of his intention so to do, in writing, to the Council and shall along with such notice, furnish plans and sections showing the intended level, means of drainage, direction and width of such land, building or street, and such other particulars as the Council may, by-laws, prescribe and save as hereinafter provided, the level, means of drainage, direction and width of every such land, building or street shall be used as may be fixed or approved by the Council.

(2) Before passing orders under sub-section (1), the Council may pass a provisional order directing that for a period, not exceeding one month as may, be specified therein, the intended work shall not be proceeding with, or demand, further particulars.

(3) If--

- (a) within two months from the receipt of the notice given under sub-section(1), the Council fails to---
 - (i) pass orders under the said sub-section and to serve notice thereof; or
 - (ii) issue a provisional order or demand further particulars under sub-section (2); or
- (b) the Council, having issued such demand for, and having received in accordance with the demand such further particulars fails to issue further orders within one month from the receipt of such particulars, then the land may be divided into building plots or used for building purposes or street may be laid out and made, in such manner as may have been specified in the notice under sub-section (1) and as in not inconsistent with any provisions of this Act or of any bye-law for the time being in force thereunder.

(4) Whoever divides land into building plots or uses land for building purpose or lays out or makes any such street either without giving the notice required by sub-section (1) or except in accordance with the orders of the Council under the sub-section (1) or (2) or the provisions of sub-section (3), or in any manner contrary to the provisions of this Act or of any bye-laws in force thereunder shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees and the Council may cause such land so divided or used for building purposes or street so laid out or laid out or made, to be altered, demolished or removed and the expense thereby incurred shall be paid to it by the offender, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

183. Regular line of public street.-

(1) A Council may, after giving not less than one month's notice of its intention so to do and having considered the objections, if any, received by it, prescribe a line on each side of public street within the Municipal area to be called the regular line of the public street and may, from time to time in the like manner, prescribe a fresh line in substitution for the line so prescribed or any part thereof:

Provided that no such regular line of public street shall be prescribed except with the previous sanction of the State Government:

Provided also that if in the opinion of the State Government it is necessary to prescribe a regular line of a public street within the Municipal area and the Council has failed to prescribe the same in respect of such street so far, the State Government may, by a written requisition, require the Council to prescribe the same in respect of the said street within a period specified therein.

(2) Notice under sub-section (1) shall be published by pasting copies thereof in the street or part of the street to which it relates.

(3) On the regular line of the public street being prescribed under sub-section (1)-

(i) no person shall, except in accordance with the provisions of this Act, construct or reconstruct any building or portion thereof within such line;

(ii) all open lands or land consisting of Khandher lying within such line shall be deemed to be part of the public street and shall vest in the Council.

(4) The Council shall pay such reasonable compensation to the owner as may be determined in accordance with the provisions of Section 303 for loss which he may sustain in consequence of inclusion of his land in a public street but in assessing such compensation regard shall be had to the benefits accruing to that owner from the development of the land belonging to him and affected by such street.

(5) In the event of contravention of sub-section (3), the Council-

(a) shall direct that the construction of the building be stopped;

(b) may by written notice, require such building or portion thereof to be altered or demolished in accordance with the provisions of such notice within such reasonable time as may be specified therein.

(6) Whoever contravenes the provisions of the sub-section (3) shall be punished with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees; and in the case of a continuing contravention with an additional fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day during which such contravention continued after the first conviction for the first such contravention.

2. Powers to regulate buildings, etc.

184. Setting back projecting buildings.--

(1) If any part of a building projects beyond the regular line of a public street either as existing or as determined for the future or beyond the front of the building on either side thereof, the Council may--

- (a) if the projecting part thereof is a verandah, step or some other structure external to the main building at any time; or
- (b) if the projecting part is not such external structure as aforesaid, then whenever the greater portion of such building or whenever any material portion of such projecting part has been taken down or burnt down or has fallen down, require by written notice either that the part, or some portion of the part, projecting beyond the said regular line or beyond the said front of the adjoining building on either side thereof shall be removed or that such building then being rebuilt shall be set back to or towards the said regular line, or the front of such building, and the portion of land added to the street by such setting back or removal shall thenceforth be deemed part of the public street and be vested in the Council:

Provided that the Council shall make reasonable compensation to the owner in accordance with the provisions of Section 303 for any land vesting in the Council for the damage, he may sustain in consequence of his building or any part thereof being set back.

(2) The Council may, upon such terms as it thinks fit, allow any building to be set forward for improving the regular line of any public street in which such building is situated.

185. Roofs and external walls of building not to be made of inflammable materials.--

(1) The external roofs and walls of the buildings constructed or renewed after the coming into force of this Act, shall not be made of grass, wood, canvas, leaves, mats or other inflammable materials excepts with the written consent of the Council which may be given either specially in individual cases, or generally in respect of any area specified therein.

(2) If the Council is of the opinion that it is necessary so to do in public interest it may at any time by written notice of not less than fifteen days, require the owner of any building which has an external roof or wall made of any such material as aforesaid to remove such roof or wall within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice whether such roof or wall was or was not made before the time at which this Act come into force and whether it was made without the consent of the Council.

(3) Whoever without such consent as is required by sub-section (1), makes or causes to be made, or disobeys the requirements of a notice given under sub-section (2) and suffers to remain any roof or wall of such materials as aforesaid shall be punished with fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which the offence is continued after the date of the first conviction.

186. Level of buildings.- Every building shall hereafter be constructed upon such level as will allow of the drainage thereof being led into some public sewer or drain either then existing or projected by the Council, or into some stream or river or into some cesspool or other suitable place which may be approved by the Council.

187. Notice of new buildings.--

(1) No person shall erect or re-erect or construct or build or commerce to erect or re-erect or construct or build any building without the sanction of the Council.

(2) Before beginning to erect any building, or to alter externally or add to any existing building, or to construct or reconstruct any projecting portion of a building in respect of which the Council is empowered by Section 184, to enforce a removal or set-back, the person intending so to build, alter, add or reconstruct shall give to the Council notice thereof, in writing and shall, of required by a bye-law or by special order to do so furnish along with such notice a plan showing the levels, at which the foundation and lowest floor of such building are proposed to be laid, by reference to some level known to the Council and all such information as may be required regarding the limits, design, ventilation and materials of the proposed building, and the intended situation and construction of the drains, sewers, privies, water-closers and cesspools, if any, to be used in connection therewith and the location of the building with reference to any existing or projected streets and the purpose for which the building will be used.

(3) Save as otherwise provided in this Act or the rules and bye-laws made thereunder, the Council may either refuse to give permission or give permission to erect, alter, add to or reconstruct the building according to the plan and information furnished or may impose, in writing, such conditions as to level, drainage, sanitation, materials or to the dimensions and cubical contents of rooms, doors, windows and apertures for ventilation or to the number of storeys to be erected or with reference to the location of the building is to be used as they think proper or may direct that the work shall not be proceeded with unless and until all questions connected with the respective location of the building and any such street have been decided to its satisfaction.

(4) The Council may, before any work has been commenced in pursuance of any permission granted under sub-section (3) revoke such permission and may give fresh permission in lieu thereof on such conditions, in accordance with this Act and the rules, and bye-laws made thereunder, with reference to the matters mentioned in the said sub-section, as it thinks proper, and may direct that the work shall not be proceeded with unless and until all questions connected with the respective location of the building and any such street have been decided to its satisfaction.

(5) Before issuing any orders under sub-section (3), the Council may, within one month from the receipt of such notice, either issue--

(a) a provisional order directing that for a period not exceeding one month from the issue thereof the intended work shall not be proceeded with; or

(b) may demand further particulars.

(6) A work proposed in a notice is given under sub-section (2) may be proceeded with in the manner specified in such notice, provided that such manner is not inconsistent with any provision of this Act, or of any bye-law for the time being in force thereunder, in the following cases, namely:--

(a) in case the Council, within one month from receipt of such notice has neither--

(i) passed orders under sub-section (3) and served notice thereof in respect of the intended work; or

(ii) issued under sub-section (5) any provisional order or any demand for further particulars;

(b) in case the Council having issued such demand for and having received such further particulars, has issued no further orders within one month from the receipt of such particulars.

(7) No person who becomes entitled under sub-section (3) or sub-section (6) to proceed with any intended work of which notice is required by sub-section (2) shall commence such work after the expiry of the period of one year from the date on which he first became entitled so to proceed therewith, unless he shall have again become so entitled by fresh compliance with the provisions of the proceeding sub-section.

(8) Whoever begins any construction, alteration, addition or reconstruction without obtaining permission or giving the notice required by sub-section (2) or without furnishing the documents or affording information above prescribed, in any manner contrary to such orders of the Council as may be issued under this section or contrary to the provisions of sub-section (7), or in any other respect contrary to the provisions of this Act or any bye-laws in force thereunder, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for each day during which such contravention continues after conviction for the first such contravention.

Provided that the Chief Municipal Officer may, without prejudice to his right to take proceedings for line in respect of the contravention, require the owner by written notice:--

Provided that the Chief Municipal Officer may, without prejudice to his right to take proceedings for line in respect of the contravention, require the owner by written notice:--

- (a) either to pull down or remove the work or if he so elects to effect such alteration therein as may be necessary to make it in conformity with the requirement as shown in the notice; or
- (b) who is erecting such building or executing such work or has erected such building or executed such work on or before such day as shall be specified in such notice, by a statement in writing subscribed by him or by an agent duly authorised by him in that behalf and addressed to the Chief Municipal Officer, to show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down; or
- (c) on such day and at such time and place as shall be specified in such notice to attend personally or by an agent duly authorised by him in that behalf, and show sufficient cause why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down.

If such person fails to show sufficient cause, to the satisfaction of the Chief Municipal Officer, why such building or work shall not be removed, altered or pulled down, the Chief Municipal Officer may remove, alter or pull down the building or work and the expenses thereof shall be paid by the persons.

(9) The Council or any officer deputed by it may, at any time, inspect the erection of any building at any time during the erection of building or the execution of any such work as aforesaid or at any time not later than one month after being informed, in writing by the person reasonable for giving a notice under sub-section (2) that the erection of the building, or the execution of any such work as aforesaid has been completed, may by a written notice specify any matter in respect of which the erection of such building, or the execution of such work, may be in contravention of any provisions of this Act or any bye-laws made under this Act at the time in force, and require the person erecting or executing, or who has erected or executed such building or work or if the person who has erected or executed such building or work, is not at the time of notice the owner thereof, then the owner of such building or work to cause anything which is contrary to any such provision or bye-law to be altered or to execute such work, which may be required to be executed by him in accordance with such provision or bye-law.

Provided that the Council shall not be liable to make any compensation in respect of the prohibition of six years or more immediately preceding such prohibition, has ceased to be fit for occupation or to exist or, having been demolished or destroyed has not been re-erected.

189. Procedure where bye-laws not framed.--

In any case in which no bye-laws have been made for the purpose of Section 187 the Council may, within fourteen days of the receipt of notice, required under the said section, require a person who has given such notice to furnish within one week of the receipt by him of the requisition, information, on all or any of the members in respect of which bye-laws might have been made and in such case the notice shall not be valid until such information has been furnished.

190. Power to refuse permission if land is proposed to be acquired.--

When a person has given notice to the Council under Section 187 in regard to his intention to construct a building, it shall be lawful for the Council to refuse the permission applied for if the Council or any other local authority decides to acquire the land on which any building is proposed to be constructed, and the Council or such other local authority, as the case may be, institutes the acquisition proceedings within four months of the date of such refusal:

Provided that such refusal shall be subject to the following conditions namely:--

- (a) if the property is acquired and no agreement is arrived at, as regards the amount of compensation payable to the person giving notice of his intention to construct a building, the same shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of this Act, regard being had to the likely benefit which would have accrued to such person if the permission had not been refused;
- (b) if within a period of four months from the date of resolution of the Council proposing to acquire the land :-
 - (i) the land is not acquired by the Council by agreement; or
 - (ii) an application has not been made to the State Government for the institution of proceedings for compulsory acquisition under the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894 (I of 1894) ; or
 - (iii) if the Council abandons the proposal to acquire the land, the notice given under Section 187 shall be deemed to have been revived with effect from the date on which the said period of four months expires, or with effect from the date on which the decision of the Council to abandon the proposal is arrived at, as the case may be;

- (c) a decision in the matter shall be communicated to the person giving notice within fifteen days from the decision; and the notice shall be dealt with as if the Council had not passed a resolution to acquire the land;
- (d) the Council shall be liable to pay compensation to the said person in respect of the loss which he may prove to have incurred by reason of refusal by the Council to grant the permission:

Provided further that the Council shall not be liable to pay compensation if the notice under Section 187 was given to the passing of the resolution by the Council to acquire the land.

191. Completion certificate and permission to occupy or use.-

(1) Every person who-

- (i) erects or re-erects any building ; or
- (ii) makes any material external alteration in or addition to any existing building; or

(iii) construct or re-constructs any projecting portion of a building which the Commissioner is empowered under section 184 to require to be set back or is empowered to give permission to construct or re-construct;

shall within one month of the completion of the work delivered to the Council at his office a notice in writing of such completion and shall give to the Council all necessary facilities for the inspection of such work.

(2) No person shall occupy or permit to be occupied any such building or use or permit to be used any buildings or part thereof affected by any such work until permission has been granted by the Council in this behalf in accordance with the bye-laws made there under this Act:

Provided that if the Council fails, within a period of fifteen days after the receipt of notice of completion under sub-section (1), to communicate its refusal to grant such permission, such permission shall be deemed to have been granted.

192. Regulation of huts.--

(1) No person shall, without giving previous to the Council of his intention so to do, erect any hut, shed or range or block of huts or sheds or add any hut or shed to any range or block of huts of shed already existing at the time this Act comes into operation.

(2) A Council may require such huts or sheds to be built so that they may stand in regular lines with a free passage or way in front of and in between every two lines of such width as the Council thinks proper for ventilation and to facilitate scavenging and at such a level as well admit of sufficient drainage and may require such huts to be provided with such number of privies and such means of drainage as it may consider necessary.

(3) If any hut or shed or range or block be built without due notice to the Council as required under sub-section (1), or otherwise than as required by the Council, the Council may by a notice, in writing, served upon the owner or builder thereof, or to the owner or occupier of the land on which the same is erected, or is being erected, require him within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice to demolish and remove the same or to make such alterations therein additions thereto as having regard to sanitary considerations the Council may think fit.

193. Improvements of huts.--

(1) Whenever the Council is of the opinion that any huts or sheds, whether used as dwelling or stables or for any other purpose, and whether existing at the time when this Act comes into operation or subsequently erected, are by reason of --

(a) insufficient ventilation or the manner in which such huts or sheds are crowded together; or

(b) the want of a plinth or sufficient drainage; or

(c) the impracticability of scavenging, attended with risk of disease to the persons residing in such huts or in the neighbourhood thereof, it shall cause a notice to be affixed to some conspicuous parts of each such huts or sheds, requiring the owner or occupier thereof, or the owner of the land on which such hut or shed is built, within such reasonable time as may be fixed by the Council for that purpose, to demolish and remove such hut or shed, or to execute such operation for its improvements as the Council may deem necessary to prevent such risk.

(2) If any owner or occupier refuse or neglects to demolish and remove such huts or sheds or to execute such operations within the time appointed, the Council may cause the said huts or sheds to be demolished or such operations to be performed in respect of such huts or sheds as it may deem necessary to prevent such risk.

(3) No action for removal or demolition of hut or shed shall be taken under sub-section (1) or (2) until the Council provides suitable alternative site or accommodation, for occupation by the dwellers of such hutments or sheds on such terms and conditions as may be prescribed.

(4) If such huts or sheds be demolished by the Council, the Council shall cause the materials of such hut or shed to be sold separately, if such sale can be effected, and the proceeds, after deducting all expenses, shall be paid to the owner of the hut or shed, or if the owner be unknown or the title disputed, shall be held in deposit by the Council until the person interested therein shall obtain the order of a competent Court for the payment of the same:

Provide that in case any huts or sheds, existing at the time when the land on which they are situated first become part of a Municipality, should be demolished under this section by order of the Council, or in pursuance of its notice, compensation shall further be made to the owner or owners thereof, and the amount thereof, in case of dispute, shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in Section 303.

3. Powers regarding external structures, etc..

194. Permission necessary for certain projections.-

(1) The Council may, subject to any bye-laws made under the provisions of this Act, give written permission to the owners or occupiers of buildings in public street to put open verandahs, balconies or rooms, to project from any upper story thereof at such height from the surface of the street as the Council may fix and to an extent not exceeding four feet beyond the line of plinth or basement wall, and may prescribe the extent to which and the conditions subject to which, roofs, eaves, weather boards, eaves, shop boards and the like may be allowed to project over such streets.

(2) (a) any such owner or occupier putting up any such projections as aforesaid without such permission or in contravention of such orders, shall be punished with fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees and if any such owner or occupier fails to remove any such projection as aforesaid in respect of which he has been convicted under this section, he shall be punished with further fine which may extend to five rupees for each day on which such failure or neglect continues.

(b) Notwithstanding any proceedings which may be taken under clause (a), the Council may, by written notice, require the owner or occupier of any such building to remove or alter any such projections which has been constructed either without or contrary in any manner to the permission or order given or issued by or on behalf of the Council.

(b) The Council may, by written notice, require the owner or the occupier of any building to remove or alter any projections, encroachment or obstructions which, whether erected before or after the site of such building became part of a Municipality, shall have been erected or placed against or in front of such buildings, and which-

(a) overhangs or juts into or in any way projects or encroaches upon any public street, so as to be an obstruction to safe and convenient passage along such street; or

(b) project and encroached into or upon any uncovered aqueduct, drain or sewer in such street so as to obstruct or interfere with such aqueduct, drain or sewer, or the proper working thereof:

Provided that the Council shall, if such projection, encroachment, or obstruction shall have been made in any place before the date on which such places became part of a Municipality, or after such date with written permission of the Council, make reasonable compensation to every person who suffers damage by such removal or alteration; and if any such dispute shall arise touching the amount of such compensation, the same shall be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in Section 303.

195. Troughs and pipes for water.--

(1) The Council may, by written notice, require the owner of any building in any street to put up and keep in good condition proper troughs and pipes for receiving and carrying water from the roof and other parts of such buildings, and for discharging the same, in such manner as they think fit, in order that such water shall not fall upon the persons passing along the street.

(1) It shall not be lawful to erect any building or to rebuild any building, or to occupy any building newly erected or rebuilt, unless and until--

(a) a drain be constructed of such size, materials and description, at such level, and with such fall, as shall appear to the Council to be necessary for the effectual drainage of such building;

(b) there have been provided for any set up in such building and in the land appurtenant thereto all such appliances and fittings as may appear to the Council to be necessary for the purpose of gathering and receiving the drainage from, and conveying the same off, the said building and the said land and of effectually flushing the drain of the said building and every fixture connected therewith.

(2) The drain, to be constructed as aforesaid, shall empty into a Municipal drain, or into some place set apart by the Council for the discharge of the drainage situated at a distance not exceeding fifty feet from such building; but if there is no such drain or place within that distance, then such drain shall empty into such cesspool as the Council may direct.

206. Power of owner and occupiers of buildings or lands to drain into Municipal drains.-

The owner or occupier of any building or land within the Municipality shall be entitled to cause his drains to empty into the sewers of the Council:

Provided that he first obtain the written permission of the Council and that he complies with such conditions as the Council may prescribe as to the mode in which and the superintendence under which the communications are to be made between the drains not vested in the Council and drains which are so vested.

207. Right to carry drain through land or into drain belonging to other persons.--

(1) If the owner or occupier of any building or land desires to connect the same with any Municipal drain, by means of drain to be constructed through land or to be connected with the drain belonging to or occupied by or in the use of some other person, he may make a written application to the Council.

(2) The Council may, thereupon, after giving to such other person a reasonable opportunity of stating any objections to such application, and if no objection is raised or if any objection which is raised is in its opinion insufficient, by an order in writing, authorise the applicant to carry his drain into, through, or under the said land, or into the said drain, as the case may be, in such manner and on such condition as to the payment of rent or compensation and as to the respective responsibilities of the parties for maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning and emptying the said drains as may appear to it to be adequate and equitable.

(3) Every person in whose favour such order is made, or any agent, or other person employed by him for this purpose shall be entitled after giving or tendering to the owner, occupier or user of the said land or drain the compensation or rent, if any specified in the said order, and otherwise fulfilling, as far as possible the condition of the said order, and after giving to the said owner, occupier, or user reasonable notice, in writing, to enter upon the land specified in the said order with assistants and workman at any time between sunrise and sunset and, subject to all provisions of this Act, to all such work as may be necessary--

- (a) for the construction or connection of the drain, as may be authorised by the said order;
 - (b) for renewing, repairing or altering the same as may be necessary from time to time; or
 - (c) for discharging any responsibilities attaching to him under the term of the order as to maintaining, repairing, flushing, cleaning or emptying the said drain or any part thereof.
- (4) In executing any work under this section as little damage as possible shall be done, and the owner or occupier of the buildings or lands for the benefit of which the work is done, shall--
- (a) cause the work to be executed with the least practicable delay;
 - (b) fill in, reinstate and make good at his own cost and with the least practicable delay the ground or any portion of any building or other construction opened, broken up or removed for the purpose of executing the said work; and
 - (c) pay compensation to any person who sustains damage by the execution of the said work.
- (5) If the owner of any land into, through or under which a drain has been carried under this section whilst such was unbuilt upon, shall at any subsequent time desire to construct a building thereon, the Council shall, if it sanctions the construction of such buildings, by written notice, require the owner or the occupier of the building or land, for the benefit of which drain was constructed, to close, remove or divert the same, and to fill in, reinstate and make good the land in such manner as it may deem necessary in order to admit of the construction or safe enjoyment of the proposed building.

208. Provisions of privies etc.-(1) Where the Council is of the opinion that-

- (a) any drain, privy, latrine, urinal absorption pt, disposal work, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse may be moved or removed;
 - (b) any privy or cesspool or additional privies or cesspools should be provided in or on any building or land or that in any Municipality in which a watern closet system has been introduced such water closets should be substituted for the existing privies in or on any building or land, or that additional water closet should be provided therein or thereon ; or
 - (c) pour-water flush latrines or any other type of latrines should be substituted for the existing service latrines in any building or land within the limits of Municipality;
- it may by written notice call upon the owner or occupier of such building or land,-
- (i) in cases falling under clause (a) to move or remove such drain, privy, latrine, urinal absorption pit, disposal work cesspools or other receptacle for filth or refuse;
 - (ii) in cases falling under clause (b) to provide such privies, cesspool or water closets;
 - (iii) in cases falling under clause ©, to close service latrines and provide in their place, pour water flush latrines or such other types of latrines;
- as may be specified in the notices at such sites and within such period as may be specified in the nortice or within such period as may be, extended by the Council by order in writing.
- (2) The Council may, by written notice, require any person or persons, employing workmen or labourers exceeding twenty in number or owning or managing any market, school or theatre or other place of public resort, to provide such latrines our urinals at such sites as it may direct and to cause the same to be kept in proper order, and to be daily cleaned.
- (3) The Council may, by written notice, require the owner or the occupier of any land upon which there is a privy or urinal, to have such privy or urinal shut out by sufficient roof and a wall or fence, from the view of persons passing by or residing in the neighbourhood, or to alter as it may direct any privy, door or trap-door which opens on to any street, and which it deems to be a nuisance.

(4) The State Government may, by order fix a period within which the pour water flush or any other type of latrines shall be substituted for the existing service latrines within the limits of a Municipality.

(5) If the owner or occupier of a building or land in spite of service of notice or order under this section fails to carry out the work mentioned there in within the period specified in the notice or order, as the case may be, shall be punished with a fine which may, extend to one thousand rupees and in case he does not pay the fine with imprisonment which may extend to three months:

Provided that without prejudice to the right to take proceedings to the punishment in respect of the contravention of this section the Council may get the said work done through its agency and recover the cost incurred in connection therewith, from the owner or occupier thereof, as the case may be, in the manner provided in Chapter VIII.

209. Power to require owners to keep drains, etc., in proper order, or to demolish or close or cesspool.- (1) All sewers, drains, privies, water-closets, urinals, house-gullies and cesspools within a Municipality shall, unless constructed at the cost of the Council be altered, repaired, and kept in proper order at the cost and charge of the owner of lands or buildings to which they belong, or for the use of which they have been constructed or continuing, and the Council may, by written notice, require any such owner to alter, repair, and put the same in good order in such manner as it may deem fit.

(2) The Council may, by written notice, require the owner to demolish or close any privy or cesspool whether constructed before or after the coming into operation of this Act, which in the opinion of the Council is a nuisance, or is so constructed as to be inaccessible for the purpose of scavenging or incapable of being properly cleaned or kept in good order.

210. Power to close existing private drains.-When any building or land within the Municipality has a drain communicating with any cesspool or sewers, the Council, if it considers that such drain, though it may be sufficient for the drainage of such building or land and though it may be otherwise unobjectionable, is not adapted to the general sewerage of the locality, may close such drain and cesspools or sewers, whether they are or are not on the land vested in the Council, on providing a drain or drains equally effectual for the drainage of such building or land and the Council may, subject to as aforesaid, do any work necessary for the purpose.

211. Power in respect of sewers, etc. un-authorisedly constructed, rebuilt or unstopped.-

The Council may, by written notice, require that any such sewers, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool on any land within Municipal limit constructed, rebuilt or unstopped-

(a) after such land became part of a Municipality; and

(b) either without the consent or contrary to the orders, directions or general regulations or bye-laws of the Municipality, or contrary to the provisions of any enactment in force at the time when it was constructed, rebuilt or unstopped;

shall be demolished, amended or altered, as it may deem fit, by the person by whom it was so constructed, rebuilt or unstopped and every person so constructing, rebuilding or unstopping any such sewers, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully, or cesspool, whether he does or does not receive such notice or does or does not comply therewith shall, in addition to any penalty to which he may extend to twenty-five rupees.

212. Encroachment on Municipal drains.- (1) Whoever, without the written consent of the Council first obtained, makes or causes to be made any drain into or out from any of the sewers or drains vested in the Council, shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and the Council may, by written notice, require such person to demolish, alter, remake or otherwise deal with such drain as it may think fit.

(2) No building shall be newly constructed or reconstructed over any sewer or drain, culvert, or gutter vested in a Council, without the written consent of Council and the Council may, by written notice, require any person who has so constructed or reconstructed any building without such written consent, to demolish or otherwise to deal with the same as it may deem fit.

213. Inspection of drains etc.- (1) The Council or any officer appointed by it for such purposes may, after due notice to the owner and subject to the restrictions of this Act, inspect any sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, house-gully or cesspool, and for that purpose at any time between sunrise and sunset, may enter upon any land or buildings, with assistants and workmen, and cause the ground to be opened wherever necessary for such inspection causing as little damage as may be.

(2) The expenses of such inspection, and of restoring the ground to its former position shall be borne by the Council unless the sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, urinal, house-gully or cesspool is found to be in bad order or condition, or was constructed in contravention of the provisions of any enactment or of any bye-law or orders thereunder in force at the time or issued in respect of such construction in which case such expenses shall be paid by the owner of such sewer, drain, privy, water-closet, urinal, house-gully or cesspool and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter-VIII.

214. Municipal Council may execute certain works without allowing person concerned to do so.--

(1) The Council may, if it thinks fit, cause any work the execution of which may be ordered by or on behalf of the Council under the provisions of this chapter to be executed by Municipal or other agency under its own orders, without first of all giving the persons by whom the same would otherwise have to be executed the opinion of doing the same.

(2) The expenses of any work so done shall be paid by person aforesaid, unless the Council shall, by a general or special order or resolution, sanction, as it is hereby empowered to sanction, the execution of such work at the charge of the Municipal Fund.

(3) Any pipes, fittings, receptacles, or other appliances for or connected with the drainage of private buildings or lands shall, if supplied, constructed or erected at the expense of the Council, be deemed to be Municipal property unless the Council shall have transferred its interest therein to the owner of such buildings or lands.

215. Sanitary and dug-well latrines.- In a Municipal area without any sewers, the Council may require the construction of septic tanks, dug-well privy, or sanitary latrines or other methods of hygienic disposal of night-soil.

216. Service privies.- In every house in any sewered area where a septic tank, dugwell privy, sanitary latrine, or any other method of hygienic disposal of night-soil is not feasible, the owner of the house shall provide the service privy of the type approved by the Council.

Explanation: Service privy means a fixed privy which is cleaned by hand but does not include a movable commode.

217. Common privies.- A Council may permit the construction of common privies, urinals and drains for any group of houses or huts in such manner as may be prescribed by bye-laws.

218. Distance from water supply.- (1) No person shall construct a drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool, or other receptacles within fifty feet of any source of water supply, except with the permission of the Council and on such conditions as may be prescribed by the Council.

(2) The Council may, by notice, require any owner or occupier on whose land any drain, privy, latrine, urinal, cesspool or other receptacle for filth or refuse for the time being exists within fifty feet of any spring, well, tank, reservoir or other source from which water is or may be derived for public use, to remove or close then same within one week from the service of the notice.

5. Powers in respect of water supply

219. Power of carrying water-mains.- For the purpose of obtaining a supply or an additional supply of water or of distributing the same, the Council shall have the same powers and be subject to the same restrictions for carrying, renewing, repairing and altering water-mains, pipes and ducts within or without the Municipal area as it has and is subject to under the provisions hereinafter contained for carrying, renewing and repairing drain within the Municipal area.

220. Powers and duties with regard to dangerous, stagnant or in sanitary sources of water supply.-(1) The Council may, at any time, by written notice, require the owner or any person who has the control over any well, stream, channel, tank or other sources of water supply, whether such sources are private property or not within a reasonable time to be specified in the notice, or in any case falling under clause (d) within 24 hours of such notice-

- (a) to keep and maintain any such source of water supply other than a stream, in good repair; or
- (b) to cleanse any such source of water supply from silt, refuse and decaying vegetation; or
- (c) to protect any such source of water supply from pollution by surface drainage in such manner as the Council may direct; or
- (d) to repair, protect or enclose in such manner as the Council may approve, any such source of water supply other than stream in its natural flow, if for want of sufficient repair, protection or enclosure, such source of water supply is in the opinion of the Council dangerous to health or safety of the public or any person having occasion to use or to pass or approach the same; or
- (e) to desist from using and from permitting others to use for drinking purposes any such source of water supply, other than stream in its natural flow, which is proved to the satisfaction of the Council to be unfit for drinking ; or
- (f) if, notwithstanding any such notice under clause (e) such use continues and cannot in the opinion of the Council be otherwise prevented, to close either temporarily or permanently or fill up or enclose or fence in such manner as the Council considers sufficient to prevent such use of such source of water supply as aforesaid; or
- (g) to drain off or otherwise remove from any source of water-supply, or from any land or premises or receptacle or reservoir attached or adjacent there to, any stagnant water which the Council considers injurious to health or offensive to the neighbourhood.

(2) If the owner or person having control as aforesaid fails or neglects to comply with any such requisition, within the time specified by or under the provisions of sub-section (1), the Council may, and if in its opinion immediate action is necessary to protect the health or safety of any person, shall at once proceed to execute the work required by such notice ; and all the expenses incurred therein by the Council shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII:

Provided that in the case of any well or private stream or any private channel, tank or other source of water-supply, the water of which is used by the public or by any section of the public as of right, the expenses incurred by the Council or necessarily incurred by such owner or person having such control may be paid from the Municipal fund.

6. Powers for promotion of public health, safety and convenience

221. Ruinous or dangerous buildings, precautionary measures.-(1) Where any building or anything affixed thereon or any tree standing within the premises is deemed by the Council to be in a ruinous state or likely to fallen or in any other way dangerous to any inhabitant of such building or of any neighbouring building or to any occupier thereof or to passers by, the Council shall immediately, if it appears to it to be necessary, cause proper hoard or fence to be put up for the protection of passers by:

Provide^{3d} that if the danger be not of hourly imminence, the Council may, instead of causing a hoard or fence to be put up, issue in the first instance, notice in writing to the owner or occupier failing to put up, within two days from the service of such notice, a hoard or fence, which the Council considers sufficient in the circumstances of the case, the Council shall at once cause such hoard or fence to be put up.

(2) The Council shall also cause notice, in writing to be given to the owner or occupier requiring such owner or occupier forthwith to take down, secure or repair such building or things affixed thereon, or to remove such tree as the case shall require; and if such owner or occupier does not begin to repair, take down or secure such building or thing or to remove such tree within three days after the service of such notice, and complete such work with due diligence, the Council shall cause all or so much of such building or thing as it shall think necessary, to be taken down repaired or secured or removed, as the case may be.

(3) In case of imminent danger the Council shall have power without giving notice to demolish such portion of the building or structure as is likely to endanger the life or property of the inhabitants of such or of any neighbouring building or the life of the passers by.

(4) All expenses incurred by the Council under this section shall be paid by the owner or occupier of such building and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VII.

222. Displacing pavements, etc.- (1) Whoever displaces, takes up, or makes any alteration in the pavement, gutter, flags or other materials or any public street or the fences, walls posts, Municipal lamps, lamp posts, brackets, water-posts, hydrants or other Municipal property, therein, without the written consent of the Council or other lawful authority, shall be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees.

(2) Any person who, having displaced, taken up or made alteration in any such pavement, gutter, flags or other materials or in such fences, walls, posts, Municipal lamps, lamp posts, brackets, water-posts, hydrants or other Municipal property, shall fail to replace or restore the same to the satisfaction of Council after notice to do so, shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and shall pay any expense which may be incurred in replacing or restoring the same;

and such expenses shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

223. Prohibition of obstruction in streets.-(1) No person shall, except with the written permission of the Chief Municipal Officer granted in this behalf and in accordance with such conditions including the payment of rent or fee, as he may impose either generally or specially in this behalf-

(a) erect or set up any wall, fence, rail post, step booth or other structure whether fixed or movable or whether of a permanent or temporary nature, or any fixture in or upon any street so as to form an obstruction to, or an encroachment upon, or a projection over or to occupy any portion of such street channel, drain, well or tank;

(b) deposit upon any street or upon any open channel, drain or well in any street upon any public place, any stall, chair bench, box lader bale or other things whatsoever, so as to form an obstruction thereto or encroachment thereon.

(2) Whoever contravenes any provision of sub-section (1) shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to five thousand rupees or with both and with further fine which may extend to one hundred rupees for every day on which such contravention continues after the date of first conviction for such offence.

(3) Without prejudice to the action under sub-section (2) the Chief Municipal Officer notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, may after giving such notice as may be prescribed, cause to be removed any obstruction or encroachment as described in clause (a) and (b) of sub-section (1).

(4) Any of the things caused to be removed by the Chief Municipal Officer under sub-section (3) shall, unless the owner thereof turns up to take back such things and pays to the Chief Municipal Officer the charges for the removal and storage of such things, be disposed of by the Chief Municipal Officer by public auction or in such other manner and within such time as the Chief Municipal Officer thinks fit.

(5) The Police Officer shall not investigate into the offence under this section except on a report made in writing in this behalf by the Chief Municipal Officer.

224. Boards to be set up during repairs, etc.-(1) A person intending to construct or take down any building or to alter or repair any building externally shall if the position or circumstances of the work is or are likely to cause or may cause obstruction, danger or inconvenience in any street, before being such work-

(a) obtain the permission from the Council; and

(b) cause sufficient boards or fences to be put up in order to separate the area where the work is to be carried on from the street and shall maintain such hoard or fence standing and in good condition to the satisfaction of the Council during such time as the Council considers necessary for the public safety or convenience and shall cause the same to be sufficiently lighted during the night and shall remove the same when directed by the Council.

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of this section shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees, and with further fine which may extended to ten rupees for every day, on which such contravention continues, after the date of such conviction for such offence.

225. Fencing and lighting during repairs etc.-(1) The Council shall, during the construction or repair of any of the streets, sewers drains or other premises vested in the Council, take proper precaution, for guarding against accident by shoring up and protecting the adjoining building, and shall cause such bars, chains or posts as it shall think fit, to be fixed across or in any street to prevent the passage of carriages, carts or other vehicle, or of cattle or horses when such construction or repair is being carried on and shall cause any such construction or repair work in a street to be sufficiently lighted and guarded during the night.

(2) Whoever takes down, alters or removes any of the said bars, chains or posts or removes or extinguishes any such light without the authority or consent of the Council shall be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.

226. Timber, etc., not to be deposited or hole made in street without permission.-(1) No person shall, without the written permission of the Council or otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of such permission, make a hole in any street or deposit on any street any timber, stone, brick, earth or other material that has been or intended to be used for building. Such permission shall be terminable at the discretion of the Council, and when such permission is granted to any person, he shall, at his own expense, cause such material or such hole to be sufficiently fenced and enclosed to the satisfaction of the Council until the materials are removed, or the hole is filled up or otherwise made secure, and shall cause such material or hold to be sufficiently lighted during the night.

(2) Whoever contravenes any of the provisions of sub-section (1) shall be punished with fine which may extend to twenty-five rupees, and with further fine which may extend to ten rupees for every day on which such contravention continues after the date of the conviction for such offence.

227. Dangerous quarrying.---

(1) If, in the opinion of the Council, the working of any quarry or the removal of stone, earth or other material from the soil in any place is dangerous to person residing in or having a right of access to the neighborhood thereof, creates or is likely to create a nuisance, the Council may by written notice, require the owner of the said quarry or place or the person responsible for such working or the removing of such material not to continue or permit the working of such quarry or to make such order with such quarry or place as the Council shall direct for the purpose of preventing the danger or of abating the nuisance arising or likely to arise therefrom:

Provided that if such quarry or place is vested in the State Government or if such working, thereof or removal therefrom, as aforesaid, is being carried on by or on behalf of the State Government or any person acting with the permission or under the authority of the State Government or of any servant or the Government acting as such, the Council shall not take such action, unless and until the Collector has consented to its doing:

Provided further that the Council shall immediately cause a proper hoard or fence to be put for the protection of passengers near such quarry or place, if it appears to it to be necessary, in order to prevent imminent danger.

(2) Any expense incurred by the Council in taking action under this section shall be paid by such owners or the person responsible for such working or removal, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.

228. Prohibiting lopping of branches etc. of trees.---

Whoever, with the permission of the Council lops or cuts the branches or twigs of any tree or plant standing on a public place or plucks the fruits, flowers or leaves of such tree or plant or causes any damage thereto, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to [one thousand rupees] or in the case of second or subsequent breach, to [two thousand rupees].

229. Building or rooms in buildings unfit for human habitation.-(1) If, for any reason, it shall appear to the Council that any building or any room in a building intended for or used as a dwelling is unfit for human habitation, the Council shall give to the owner or occupier of such building notice, in writing, stating such reasons, and signifying its intention to prohibit the further use of the building or room, as the case may be, as a dwelling, and shall in such notice call upon the owner or occupier aforesaid to state, in writing, any objection thereto within 30 days after the receipt of such notice and if no objection is raised by such owner or occupier within such period as aforesaid, or if any objection which is raised by such owner or occupier within such period appears to the Council invalid or insufficient, the Council may, by order in writing prohibit the further use of such building or room as a dwelling.

(2) When any such objection as aforesaid has been made, the Council shall cause notice of such prohibition to be affixed to, and then letters 'U.H.H.' to be painted on the door or some conspicuous part of such building or room, as the case may be, and the owner or occupier of such building or room shall use or suffer the same to be used for human habitation until the Council certifies, in writing, that the building or room, as the case may be, has been rendered fit for human habitation.

230. Power to enter and inspect etc., buildings.-It shall be lawful for the President, Vice-President, Chairman of President-in-Council Chief Municipal Officer or Councillor or any officer, authorized by the Council in this behalf, at any time between sunrise and sunset after due notice to enter into and inspect all buildings and lands, and by written notice to direct for sanitary reasons all or any part thereof to be forthwith internally and externally lime-washed or otherwise cleansed.

231. Special powers which may be conferred by State Government in respect of over crowded area.-(1) If the State Government is of opinion that risk of disease has arisen either to any occupier in, or to any habitant in the neighbourhood of any area by reason of the following defects, namely:-

- (a) the manner in which either buildings or blocks of buildings already existing or projected therein, are, or are likely to become, crowded together; or
- (b) the impracticability of cleaning any such building or blocks or buildings, already existing or projected; or
- (c) the want of drainage or scavenging, or the difficulty of arranging therein for the drainage or scavenging or any such buildings or blocks or areas as aforesaid; or
- (d) the narrowness, closeness, bad arrangement or bad condition of the street or buildings or group buildings;

it may, by notification, confer on the Council to which such area is subject all or any of the powers specified in sub-section (2) and may, if it deems necessary at any time make rules prescribing any limitations, restrictions, modifications conditions or regulations subject to which the Council shall exercise within that area, all powers so conferred, unless and until those powers are withdrawn by a subsequent notification of the State Government.

(2) The powers, all or any of which may be conferred on a Council under sub-section (1) are as follows:-

- (a) power when any building or block already existing or in course of erection by reason of any defect specified in sub-section (1), has given or is in the opinion of the Council likely to give rise to such risk as aforesaid to require by a written notice, to be fixed upon some conspicuous part of such building or block and addressed, as the Council deems fit, either to the owners thereof or to the owners of the land on which such building of erection that the persons so addressed shall, within such reasonable time as shall be specified in the notice, either pull down or remove such building or block or execute such works or take such action in connection therewith as the Council deems necessary to prevent all such risk of disease;

(b) power to Council or any other agency authorized in writing by the Council to pull down or remove such building or block, or to execute such works or take such action as aforesaid, if the persons addressed in the said notice neglect so to do within the time specified therein;

(c) power, subject to right of appeal as herein after provided, to prohibit, by written notice addressed to the owners and occupiers of any site or space hereinafter described and by general notice published in the manner provided in sub-section (3) of Section 294, the erection of any building, or of any building exceeding such dimensions as may be specified in such notice-

(i) on the site of any building which has, in whole or in part, under the provisions of this section been pulled down; or

(ii) on any space not occupied by buildings whether such space is private property or not and whether it is enclosed or not, if the Council considers that order to prevent such risk as aforesaid such site or space should not be built upon in whole or in part; and either to acquire such site or space or to prescribe such conditions as may be deemed necessary as to the use which the owner or occupier may make or permit to be made thereof:

Provided that in every case compensation, the amount of which shall in case of dispute, be ascertained and determined in the manner provided in Section 303, shall be paid to any person whose rights are affected by such prohibition.

(3) When, in pursuance of any notice under sub-section (2) any building has been pulled down, the Council shall, unless such building has been erected contrary to any provision of this Act or of any bye-law in force thereunder, pay to such owner or occupier as may have sustained damage thereby, reasonable compensation, the amount of which shall, in case of dispute, be ascertained or determined in the manner provided in Section 303.

(4) The State Government may prescribe by rule a fine not exceeding five hundred rupees, for every breach, and a further fine not exceeding twenty rupees a day for every continuing breach, of any order made or conditions imposed by the Council in exercise of any powers conferred upon it under this section.

7. Powers in regard to nuisances

232. Investigation and action.--

The Council shall, as far as possible arrange for detection, inspection, abatement and removal of nuisance.

233. Removal of nuisances.--

On receipt of any information about the existence of a nuisance in any locality, the Council shall cause the matter to be investigated and if it appears to it that the nuisance is wholly or partly caused by any act or default of the owner, lessee or occupier of the premises or of any person or persons outside the premises, the Council may require the owner, lessee or occupier of the premises or other person or persons responsible for causing the nuisance to take such measures as may be specified in the notice, within the period specified therein.

234. Person responsible for causing nuisance.--

Every such owner, lessee or occupier of the premises or other person responsible for causing the nuisance shall forthwith comply with the directions of the notice, failing which the Council may, without prejudice to any penalty to which he may be liable under this Act, take such action for restraint, abatement and removal of the nuisance as may be considered necessary and realize the expenses incurred by the Council from the owner, occupier or the person or persons concerned in the manner provided in Chapter VIII.

235. Condition causing nuisance to be rectified by alternation reconstruction or demolition.--

If any house, building, shed or structure or any factory, workshop, workplace or any manufactory or place of trade is in such a condition that the nuisance cannot be abated or removed without structural alteration, reconstruction or demolition of such house, building, shed or structure, the Council may direct the owner, lessee or occupier to make the alteration or reconstruction in the manner specified in the direction or to demolish the house, building, shed or structure within the period penalty to which he may be liable under this Act, after giving due notice, the improvement or with permission of a Magistrate exercising not less than second class power, demolish the house, building, shed or structure and recover the expenses from the party concerned in such manner as the Council may decide and no compensation shall be payable by the Council for any such prohibition, improvement or demolition made by the Council.

Service of notice, addressed to individuals.-(1) The service of every notice, and presentation of every bill under this Act, on any person or to any person to whom it is by name addressed, shall, in all cases not otherwise specially provided for in this Act, be effected by a Municipal Officer, servant or other person authorized by the Council in this behalf-

- (a) by giving or tendering the notice or bill to the person to whom it is addressed; or
- (b) if such person is not found by leaving the notice or bill at his last known place of abode, if within the Municipal limits, or by giving or tendering the notice or bill to some adult member or servant of his family; or
- (c) if such person does not reside within the Municipal limits, and his address elsewhere is known to the President or other person directing the issue of the notice or bill, then by forwarding the notice or bill, by Registered Post Acknowledgement due under cover bearing the said address; or

(d) if none of the means aforesaid be available, then by causing the bill or notice to be affixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land, if any, to which the bill or notice relates.

(2) When any notice, under this Act, is required or permitted by or under this Act to be served upon an owner or occupier of any building or land, it shall not be necessary to name the owner or occupier therein, and the service thereof, in cases not otherwise specially provided for in this Act shall be effected either-

- (a) by giving or tendering the notice to the owner or occupier or if there be more owners or occupiers than one, to any one of them; or
- (b) if no such owner or occupier be found, then by giving or tendering the same to some adult member or servant of the family of such owner or occupier as aforesaid; or
- (c) if none of the means aforesaid be available, then by causing the notice to be fixed on some conspicuous part of the building or land to which the same relates.

(3) Every notice which this Act requires or empowers a Council or any Municipal Authority or Officer to give or to serve either as a public notice or generally, or by provisions which do not expressly require notice to be given to individuals therein specified, shall be deemed to have been sufficiently given or served if a copy thereof is put up in such conspicuous part of the Municipal office during such period and in such other public buildings and places, or is published in such local papers or in such other manner, as the Council in bye-laws in this behalf prescribes.

(4) No notice or bill shall be invalid for defect of form.

(5) When any notice under this Chapter requires any act to be done for which no time is fixed by this Act, the Notice shall fix a reasonable time for doing the same.

(6) In the event of non-compliance with the terms of any notice under this Chapter, it shall be lawful, for the Council to take such action or such steps as may be necessary for the completion of the act thereby required to be done, and all the expenses incurred therein by the Council shall be paid by the person or persons upon whom the notice was served, and shall be recoverable in the manner provided in Chapter VIII.

295. Relief to agent receiver and trustees.-(1) If person by reason of his receiving the rent of immovable property as agent, receiver or trustee, or of his being as agent receiver or trustee of the person who would receive the rent, if the property were let to a tenant is under this Act, bound to discharge any obligation unless he has or but for his own improper act or default might have had in his hands funds belonging to the owner sufficient for the purpose.

(2) The burden of proving the fact entitling an agent, receiver or trustee to relief under this section shall lie on him.

(3) If any agent receiver or trustee has claimed and established his right to relief under this section, the Council may give him notice to apply to the discharge of such obligation as aforesaid the first moneys which shall come to his hands on behalf, or for the use, of the owner and should he fail to comply with such notice, he shall be deemed to be personally liable to discharge such obligation.

296. Punishment for disobedience to orders and notices not punishable under any other section.- Whoever disobeys or fails to comply with any lawful direction given by any written notice issued by or on behalf of a Council under any power conferred by this Chapter or fails to comply with the conditions subject to which any permission was given to him by the Council under any power conferred shall, if the disobedience or failure is not an offence punishable under any other section be punishable with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees, and in the case of a continuing offence with further time which may extend to five rupees for every day on which the said disobedience or failure continues after the date of the first conviction:

Provided that when the notice fixes a time within a certain act is to be done, and no time is specified in the Act, it shall rest with the Magistrate to determine whether the time so fixed was reasonable time within the meaning of this Act.

297. General penalty.- Whoever does or omits to do an act in contravention of any provision of this Act or the rules or bye-laws made thereunder or the conditions of a licence or permission granted by Council or any of its officers under the said provisions or rules or bye-laws shall, if such act or omission is not an offence under the said provision or rules or byelaws, be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and with further fine which may extend to five rupees for every day on which such act or omission continues after the date of the first conviction.

298. Council, in default of owner or occupier, may execute works and recover expenses.--

(1) Whether under the provisions of this Act any work is required to be executed by the owner or occupier of any building or land and default is made in execution of such work, the Council whether any penalty is or is not provided for such default, may cause such work to be executed; and the expenses thereby incurred shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be paid to it by the person by whom such work ought to have been executed, and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII either in one sum or by installment as the Council may deem fit:

Provided that--

- (a) where any Drainage Scheme or Water Work Scheme has been commenced by any Council, it shall be lawful for the Council without prejudice to its power under Section 201 or any other provision of this Act, to make a special agreement with the owner of any building or land as to the manner in which the Drainage and Water connection thereof shall be carried out, and the pecuniary or other assistance, if any, which the Council shall render, and any payment, agreed upon by the owner shall be recovered in accordance with the terms of such agreement or in default, in the manner prescribed in sub-section (2) and (3);
 - (b) where an order or requisition has been passed under sub-section (1) of Section 180, sub-section (3) of Section 187, or under Section 200, 203, or 209 or where permission has been given under Section 207 or where an arrangement has been made under clause (a) the Council may, without prejudice to any other powers under this Act, if it thinks fit, declare any expenses incurred by the Council, in the execution of order or in the carrying out of such requisition, permission or arrangement to be improvement expenses, Improvement expenses shall be charged upon the premises of land, and shall be levied in such instalments as the Council may decide including interest at the rate of 6-1/4 per cent per annum, and shall be recoverable in the manner prescribed in sub-sections (2) and (3).
- (2) If the defaulter be the owner of the building or land the Council may by way of additional remedy whether a suit or proceeding has been brought or taken against such owner or not, require, subject to the provisions of sub-section (3), the payment of all or any part of the expenses payable by the owner for the time being from the person who then, or any time thereafter occupies the building or land under such owner; and in default of payment thereof by such occupier on demand, the same may be levied from such occupier, and every amount claimed on account so leviable shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on amount of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII; every such occupier shall be entitled to deduct from the rent payable by him to his landlord so much as has been so paid by or recovered from such expenses.
- (3) No occupier of any land or building shall be liable to pay more money in respect of any expenses charged by this Act on the owner thereof, than the amount of rent which is due from such occupier for the building or land in respect of which such expenses are payable, at the time of demand made upon him or which at any time after such demand and notice not to pay rent to the landlord as accrued and become payable by such occupier, unless he neglects or refuses upon application made to him for this purpose by the Council, truly to disclose the amount of his rent, and the name and the address of the person to whom such rent is payable; but the burden of proof that the sum demanded of any such occupier is greater than the rent which was due by him at the time of such demand, or which has since accrued, shall be upon such occupier:

Provide that nothing herein contained shall be taken to affect any special contract made between any such occupier and the owner respecting the payment of any such expenses as aforesaid.

299. Occupier, in default of owner, may execute work and deduct expenses from his rent.--

Where default is made by the owner of any building or land in the execution of any work required to be executed by him, the occupier of such building or land may, with the approval of the Council, cause such work to be executed and expense thereof shall be paid to him by the owner, or the amount may be deducted out of the rent from time to time becoming due from him to such owner.

300. Proceedings, if any occupier opposes the execution of the Act.--

If the occupier of any building or land prevents the owner thereof from carrying into effect in respect of such building or land, any provisions of this Act, after notice of his intention so as to carry them into effect has been given by the owner to such occupier; any Magistrate upon proof thereof, and upon application of the owner, may make an order, in writing, requiring such occupier to permit the owner to execute all such works, with respect to such building or land, as may be necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this Act, and may also, if he thinks fit, order the occupier the costs relating to such application or order, and if, after the expiration of 8 days from the date of the order, such occupier continues to refuse to permit such owner to execute any such work, such occupier for every day during which he so continues to refuse be punished with fine which may extend to fifty rupees and every such owner, during the continuance of such refusal, shall be discharged from any penalties to which he might otherwise have become liable by reason of his default to execute such work.

20. Summary power regarding certain offences

301. Summary powers regarding certain offences.- The Government may appoint an officer of the Council to be a Magistrate under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 (V of 1898) to try offences with regard to matters relating to Sections 211, 212, 236, 240, 241, sub-section(1) of Sections 242, 246, 250 and 269, and may empower to try them summarily.

21. Miscellaneous

Entry for Inspection.-It shall be lawful for the President, Chief Municipal Officer, Municipal Health Officer or Municipal Engineer or any Councillor authorized by the council or any officer or servant authorized by the Chief Municipal for such purposes to enter for the purposes, of this Act, between sunrise and sunset with such assistants as he may deem necessary, into and upon any building or land, as well for the purpose of making any survey or inspection they may be entitled to make for the purpose of executing any work authorized by this Act to be executed by them:

Provided that except when herein otherwise provided no building or land which may be occupied at the time shall be entered unless with the consent of the occupier thereof without 24 hour' written notice thereof having been given to the said occupier:

Provided further that in the case of building used as human dwellings, due regard shall be paid to the social and religious customs of the occupiers.

303. Arbitration in cases of compensation, etc.-(1) If an agreement is not arrived at with respect to any compensation or damages which are by this Act directed to be paid the amount and if necessary the appointment of the same shall be ascertained and determined by a Panchayat of three persons of whom one shall be appointed by the Council, one by the party to or from whom such compensation or damages may be payable or recoverable, and one, who shall be Sarpanch, shall be selected by the members already appointed as above.

(2) If either party or both parties fail to appoint members within one month from the date of either party receiving written notice from the other of claim to such compensation or damages, or if the members fail to select a Sarpanch, such members as may be necessary to constitute the Panchayat shall be appointed at the instance of either party, by the District Court.

(3) In the event of the Panchayat not giving a decision within one month from the date of the section of the Sarpanch or of the appointment by the District Court of such members as may be necessary to constitute the Panchayat, the matter shall on application by either party, be determined by the District Court which shall, in cases in which the compensation is claimed in respect of land follow, as far as may be, the procedure provided in the Land acquisition Act, 1894 (1 of 1894), for proceedings in matters referred for the determination of the Court:

Provided that-

(a) no application to the Collector for a reference shall be necessary; and
(b) the Court shall have full power to give and appropriation the costs of all proceedings in the manner it thinks fit.

(4) In any case where the compensation is claimed in respect of land and the Panchayat has given a decision, either party, if dissatisfied with the decision may within a month of the date thereof apply to the District Court and the matter shall be determined by the District Court in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (3).

(5) In any case where the compensation is claimed in respect of any land or building the Council may after the award has been made by the Panchayat or the District Court, as the case may be, take possession of the land or building after paying the amount of the compensation determined by the Panchayat or the District Court to the party to whom such compensation may be payable. If such party refuses to building or if there is any dispute as to the title to the compensation or as to the appointment of it, the Council shall deposit the amount of the compensation in the District Court.

(6) In the absence of any express provision to the contrary, the compensation payable under this Act shall determined in accordance with the principles laid down in the Land acquisition Act 1894 (1 of 1894).

304. Costs or expenses how determined and recovered.-If a dispute arises with respect to any costs or expenses which are by this Act directed to be paid, the amount and if necessary the appointment of the same shall save where it is otherwise expressly provided in this Act, be ascertained and determined by the Council and shall be recoverable in the same manner as an amount claimed on account of any tax recoverable under Chapter VIII.
