120.(1) A statement of account, certified by the Deputy Commissioner or the Tehsildar shall, for the purpose of this Chapter, be presumed to be correct statement of the arrears of land revenue payable to Government or its amount, and of the person who is the defaulter, until the contrary is proved.

(2) No notice to the defaulters shall be necessary before drawing up the statement referred to in sub-section (1).

121. The Tehsildar or Naib-Tehsildar shall cause a notice of demand in the prescribed form and containing the prescribed particulars to be served on any defaulter before the issue of any process under section 122 for the recovery of an arrear of land revenue.

Notice of demand

122. An arrear of land revenue payable to Government may be recovered by the Tehsildar in the prescribed manner by any one or more of the following process, namely :-

Process of recovery of arrear

(a) by attachment and sale of movable property belonging to the defaulter;

(b) by attachment of the holding in respect of which the arrear is due and the sale of the interest of the defaulter therein and where such holding consists of more than one survey number or plot number by such sale in one or more of such survey numbers or plot numbers as may be considered necessary to recover the arrear;

(c) by attachment and sale of the interest of the defaulter in any other immovable property :

Provided that the process specified in clauses (a) and (c) shall not permit the attachment and sale of the following, namely :-

(i) the necessary wearing-apparel, cooking, vessels, beds and bedding of the defaulter, his wife and children, and such personal ornaments as, in accordance with religious usage, cannot be parted with by any woman;

(ii) tools of artisans and, if the defaulter is an agriculturist his implements of husbandry, except any implements driven by mechanical power and such cattle and seed as may, in the opinion of the Tehsildar, be necessary to enable him to earn his livelihood as such;

(iii) article set aside exclusively for the use of religious endowments;

(iv) houses and other buildings (with the materials and the sites thereof and the land immediately appurtenant thereto and necessary for their enjoyment) belonging to an agriculturist and occupied by him.

Cost recoverable as past of arrear 123. The cost of serving a notice of demand under section 121 or of issuing and enforcing any process under section 122 shall be recoverable as part of the arrear in respect of which the notice was served or the process was issued.

Enforcement of process in other districts 124. The process specified in clauses (a) and (c) of section 122 may be enforced either in the district in which the default has been made or in any other district.

Payment under protest and suit for recovery 125.(1) If proceedings are taken under this Chapter against any person for the recovery of an arrear of land revenue he may, at any time before his interest in the property is knocked down at a sale, pay the amount claimed and may, at the same time, deliver a protest signed by himself or his authorized agent to the revenue officer taking such proceedings, and thereupon such proceedings shall be stayed.

(2) Any person complying with the provisions of sub-section (1) may, notwithstanding anything contained in section 120, object to the sub-divisional Officer that nothing was due or that the amount were taken and the Sub-Divisional Officer shall decide the objection so raised.

(3) Where the Sub-Divisional Officer decides that the amount due was less than the amount for the recovery of which proceedings were taken he shall as early as practicable refund the excess amount to such person.

(4) No appeal shall lie against the order of the Sub-Divisional Officer passed under sub-section (2), but the person aggrieved by such order may institute a civil suit for the recovery of the sum paid under protest.

Application of proceeds of sale

126. (1) The proceeds of every sale under this Chapter shall be applied firstly, in satisfaction of the arrears on account of which the sale was held and of the expenses of such sale, secondly, to the payment of any arrears of cesses due from the defaulter under any law for the time being in force, thirdly, to the payment of any other arrear payable to the Government by the defaulter, and forthly, to the payment of any arrears due from the defaulter to a co-operative society and the surplus, if any, shall then be payable to him, or where there are more defaulters than one, to such defaulters according to their respective interests in the property sold:

Provided that the surplus shall not be paid to the defaulter or defaulter, as the case may be, until after expiry of two months from the date of the sale in the case of movable property or from such date as may be prescribed in the case of immovable property.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the proceeds of sale under clause (c) of section 122 shall be applied first to the payment of arrears of land revenue payable by the defaulter for the immovable property sold up to the date of the sale, and the surplus, if any, shall be applied in accordance with sub-section (1).

Interest of the defaulter in the property sold for arrears to be free from encumbrances

127. Unless the Sub-Divisional Officer otherwise directs, the purchaser of the interest of the defaulter in the immovable property sold for arrears of land revenue, shall acquire such interest free of all encumbrances imposed on it and all grants and contracts made in respect of it, by any person than the purchaser.

128. (1) Where the interest of the defaulter in any immovable property is sold under the provisions of this Chapter and such sale has been confirmed by the prescribed authority in the prescribed manner such interest shall be deemed to have vested in the purchaser from the time when such interest is sold and not from the date on which the sale has been confirmed.

Purchaser's title

(2) When a sale is confirmed under sub-section (1), the Sub-Divisional Officer shall put the person declared to be the purchaser in possession of the property and shall grant him a certificate in the prescribed form to the effect that he has purchased the interest of the defaulter in the property specified therein and such certificate shall be deemed to be a valid transfer of such interest.

129. The purchaser shall not be liable for land revenue payable in respect of the property for any period previous to the date of the sale.

Purchaser not liable for land revenue
due prior to sale

130. The following moneys may be recovered, under this Regulation in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue, namely :-

Moneys recoverable as an arrear of land revenue

(a) all rents, cases, royalties, water rates, fees, charges, premia, penalties, fines and costs due to the Government under this Regulation;

(b) all moneys falling due to the Government under any grant, licence, lease or contract which provide that they shall be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue;

(c) all sums declared by this Regulation, or any other law for the time being in force, to be recoverable in the same manner as an arrear of land revenue; and

2 of 1912

(d) any sum ordered by a liquidator appointed under the Co-operative Societies Act 1912, to be recovered as a contribution to the assets of a society or as the cost of liquidation :

Provided that no action shall be taken on application for recovery of a sum specified in clause (d), unless such application is accompanied by a certificate signed by the Registrar appointed under that Act that the sum should be recovered as an arrear of land revenue.

131. Every person who may have become a surety under any grant or license made or granted under this Regulation whereunder the sum secured is recoverable from the principal as an arrear of land revenue shall, in failure to pay the amount or any portion thereof which he may have become liable to pay under the terms of his security bond, be liable to be proceeded against under the provisions of this Regulation in the same manner as for the recovery of arrears of land revenue

160. If a transfer of interest in land is made in contravention of the provisions of clause (ii) of sub-section (2) of section 159 the interest so transferred shall stand forfeited to the Government in accordance with such rules as may be made in that behalf.

161. (1) If after the commencement of this Regulation any tenant is disposed of any lands held by him otherwise than by process of law, he may within two years from the date of such dispossession apply to the Tehsildar for his reinstatement in such land.

Reinstatement of wrongfully ejected tenant

(2) On receipt of an application under sub-section (1). The Tehsildar shall, after making an enquiry into the respective claims of the parties, pass order on the application and when he orders the restoration of possession to the tenant, put him in possession of the land.

(3) The Tehsildar may, at any stage of the enquiry under sub-section 2, pass an interim order for delivery of possession of the land to the applicant, if he finds that the applicant was dispossessed by the opposite party within six months prior to the date of submission of the application under sub-section (1) and if possession is not delivered to the applicant, the Tehsildar shall cause the opposite party to be ejected.

(4) When an interim order has been passed under sub-section (3), the opposite party may be required by the Tehsildar, to execute a bond for such sum as he may deem fit for abstaining from taking possession of the land until the final order is passed by him.

(5) If the person executing the bond under sub-section (4), is found to have entered into, or taken possession of the land in contravention of the bond, the Tehsildar may forfeit the bond in whole or in part and may recover such amount from such person as an arrear of land revenue.

(6) If the order passed under sub-section 2 is in favour of the applicant, the Tehsildar shall also award a reasonable compensation to be paid to the application by the opposite party.

Provided that the amount of compensation shall not exceed ten times the land revenue payable in respect of the land for each year's occupation.

(7) Any compensation awarded under this section shall be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

162. The interest of tenant in his holding or any part thereof shall be extinguished, -

Extinguishment of tenancies

Rights In Abadi And Unoccupied Land And Its Produce

Record of unoccupied land

194. A record of all unoccupied land shall be prepared and maintained for every village in such manner as may be prescribed.

Preparation of Nistar Patrak

195. (1) The Deputy Commissioner shall, consistent with the provisions of this Regulation and the rules made thereunder, prepare a Nistar Patrak (Village administration paper) embodying a scheme of management of all unoccupied land in a village and all matters incidental thereto and including in particular matters specified in section 196.

(2) A draft of the Nistar Patrak shall be published in the village and after ascertaining in wishes of the residents of the village in the prescribed manner, the Deputy Commissioner may finalise the draft with or without modifications.

(3) On a request being made by the Gram Sabha, or where there is no Gram Sabha, on the application of not less than one-fourth of the adult residents of a village, or of his own motion the Deputy Commissioner may, at any time, modify any provision in the Nistar Patrak after such enquiry as he deems fit.

Matter to be provided for in Nistar Patrak

196. The following matters shall be provided in the Nistar Patrak referred to in section 195, namely :-

(a) the terms and conditions on which grazing of cattle in the village may be permitted;

(b) the terms and conditions on which and the extend to which any resident of the village may obtain-

(i) wood, timber, fuel or any other, forest produce,

(ii) mooram, kankar, earth, or any minor mineral;

(c) the instructions regulating generally the grazing of cattle and the removal of the articles mentioned in clause (b);

(d) any other matter required to be recorded in the Nistar Patrak by or under this Regulation.

Explanation - In this section and in section 197 the expression "minor minerals" shall have the meaning assigned to it in clause (e) of section 2 of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957.

Provision in Nistar Patrak for certain matters

197. In preparing the Nistar Patrak as provided in section 196 the Deputy Commissioner shall, as far as possible, make provision for-

- (a) free grazing of the cattle used for agriculture;
- (b) removal, free of charge, by residents of the village for their bona fide domestic consumption of –
  - (i) forest produce;
  - (ii) minor minerals;
- (c) concessions to be granted to the village craftsmen for the removal of forest produce or minor minerals for the purpose of their craft.;

Deputy Commissioner to set apart unoccupied land for certain purposes

198. (1) Subject to such rules as may be made under this Regulation, the Deputy Commissioner may set apart unoccupied land for the following purposes, namely :-

- (a) for timber or fuel reserve;
- (b) for paster or fodder reserve;
- (c) for burial ground and cremation ground;
- (d) for keeping cattle;
- (e) for encamping ground;
- (f) for threshing floor;
- (g) for bazaar;
- (h) for skinning ground;
- (i) for manure pits;
- (j) for any public purpose such as schools, playgrounds, parks, roads lanes and drains;
- (k) for any other purposes which may be prescribed.

(2) Lands set apart specially for any purpose mentioned in sub-section (1) shall not otherwise be diverted for any other purpose without the previous sanction of the Deputy Commissioner.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, if the Deputy Commissioner is satisfied that any unoccupied land set apart for any of the suitable for such purposes mentioned in sub-section (1) is not immediately required or suitable for such purpose, he may allot such land to such person, for such periods and purposes and on such terms and conditions, as may be prescribed.

(4) Where any land is allotted under sub-section (3), nothing in Chapter XIII shall apply to the allottee of such land.

199. If the Chief Commissioner is of opinion that the cutting of any trees in any unoccupied land is detrimental to public interest or that it is necessary to prohibit or regulate the cutting of any trees in such land for preventing soil erosion he may, by general or special order, prohibit or regulate the cutting of such trees.

Prohibiting of cutting of certain trees

200. Where the area reserved for abadi is, in the opinion of the Deputy Commissioner, insufficient, he may reserve such further area for abadi from the unoccupied land in the village as he may think fit.

Abadi

201. (1) The Government reserves the right, in respect of every land to and over the foreshore, quarries, mines, stone, slate, chalk clay, precious stones, gold washing, coal and other minerals and mineral oils and also to all stream water courses and public thoroughfares within or traversing the said lands or any part thereof, unless any or all of them are expressly specified for alienation in any instrument made by the Government.

Government's title to minerals

(2) The right to all mines and quarries includes the right of access to land for the purpose of mining and quarrying and the right to occupy such other land as may be necessary for purposes subsidiary thereto, including the erection of offices, workmen's dwellings, machinery, the stacking of minerals and deposit of refuse, the construction of roads or tram-lines and any other purposes which the Government may declare to be subsidiary to mining and quarrying.

* (2) (a) "The Government may assign to any person, its right over any minerals, mines or quarries and the Chief Commissioner may with the previous approval of the Government assign to any person the right of the Government over minor minerals.

Explanation- In this sub-section, the expression "minor minerals" has the same meaning assigned to it in clause (e) of section 3 of the Mines and Minerals (Regulation and Development) Act, 1957."

** (3) If the Government or the Chief Commissioner has assigned to any person its right over any minerals, mines or quarries, and if for the proper enjoyment of such right it is necessary that all or any of the power specified in sub-section (2) should be exercised, the Deputy Commissioner may, by order in writing and subject to such conditions and reservations as he may specify, authorise the person to whom such right has been assigned to exercise such powers:

** (4) If, in the exercise of any right over any land under this section, the rights of any person are infringed by the occupation or disturbance of such land, the Government or the Chief Commissioner or the assignee shall pay to such person compensation for such infringement and the amount of such compensation shall be calculated by the Sub-Divisional Officer, or if is award is not accepted, by the civil court, as nearly as may be in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act, 1894

** (5) If an assignee fails to pay compensation as provided in sub-section (4), the Deputy Commissioner may recover such compensation from him on behalf of the persons entitled to it, as if it were an arrear of land revenue

** (6) If any person who without lawful authority extracts or removes minerals from any mine or quarry, the right to which vests in the Government and has not been assigned to him by, the Government or the Chief Commissioner, such person shall, without prejudice to any other action that may be taken against him, be liable on the Exceeding a sum calculated at double the market value of the minerals so extracted or removed:

Provided that if the sum so calculated is less than one thousand rupees, the penalty may be such larger sum not exceeding one thousand rupees as the Deputy Commissioner may impose.

** (7) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (6). the Deputy Commissioner may seize and confiscate any mineral extracted or removed from any mine or quarry the right to which vests in, the Government and has not been assigned by, the Government or the Chief Commissioner.

** Sub-section 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7 of section 201 of Principal Regulation are amended vide Notification No. 128/F.No. 52 3/76 JIdt. 24-7-76.

Penalty of unauthorized occupation of land

202. (1) Any person who unauthorisedly takes or remains in possession of any unoccupied land or abadi may be summarily ejected by order of the Tehsildar and any crop which may be standing on the land and any building or other work which he may have constructed thereon, if not removed by him within such times as the Tehsildar may fix, shall be liable to forfeiture.

(2) Any property forfeited under sub-section (1) shall be disposed of in such manner as the Tehsildar may direct and the cost of removal of any crop, building or other work and of all works necessarily to restore the land to its original condition shall be recoverable from such person as an arrear of land revenue.

(3) Such person shall, subject to the provisions of sub-section (5), also be liable, at the discretion of the Tehsildar, to a fine which may extend to two hundred and fifty rupees.'

(4) The Tehsildar may apply the whole or any part of the fine imposed under sub section (3) to compensate persons who may, in his opinion, have suffered loss or injury from such unauthorized occupation.

(5) If any case, the Tehsildar considers that circumstances of the case warrant imposition of a fine exceeding two hundred and fifty rupees he may refer the case to the Sub-Divisional Officer who shall then, after giving the party concerned an opportunity of being heard, pass such orders in respect of fine as he may deem fit.

(6) If any person ordered to be ejected under sub-section (1) has constructed any work of a permanent nature under a bonafied mistake, he may apply to the Deputy Commissioner for condonation of the encroachment and the Deputy Commissioner may, if satisfied that the work was constructed in under a bonafied mistake and that the land can be allowed to remain in the possession of such person without any serious detriment to public purpose, condone the encroachment under such terms as he may deem fit.

(7) No order made under sub-section (1) shall prevent any person from establishing his rights in a civil court.

(8) If notice of an intention to institute a suit is delivered to the Tehsildar, he shall desist from carrying out his order under sub-section (1) for a period of three months, and if such suit is filed within such period he shall stay his proceedings pending the decision of the civil court.

Penalty of
provisions

203.(1) Save as otherwise provided in this Chapter any person who acts in contravention of the provisions of this Chapter or of the provisions of the Nistar Patrak prepared under section 195 shall be liable to such penalty not exceeding two hundred rupees as the Divisional Officer may, after giving such person an opportunity to be heard, deem fit and the Sub-Divisional Officer may further order confiscation of any timber, forest produce, or any other produce which such person may have unlawfully appropriated or removed.

(2) Where the Sub-Divisional Officer passes an order imposing a penalty under this section, he may direct that the whole or any part of the penalty may be applied to meet the cost of such measures as may be necessary to prevent loss or injury to the public owing to such contravention.
