Director.

(2) The Government may also appoint such other officers of the Local Fund Audit Department, as it may deem necessary, to carry out the purposes of this Act.

(3) All officers and staff of the Local Fund Audit Department shall be subordinate to the Director, who shall have general superintendence and control over them in the performance of their functions under this Act or the rule made thereunder.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Director of Local Fund Audit functioning before the commencement of this Act, shall be deemed to have been appointed as the Director under this Act.

Audit of Accounts.

Central Act
56 of 1971.

4. Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force, but subject to the provisions of the Comptroller and Auditor General (Duties, Powers and Conditions of Service) Act, 1971, the Director shall audit or cause to be audited by an officer of the Local Fund Audit Department authorised by him by general or special order in this behalf, the accounts of a local authority or local fund in the manner provided by or under this Act. The officer so authorised shall exercise such of the powers and perform such of the functions of the Director in regard to the conduct of audit under this Act.

Power to audit accounts of certain authorities, bodies,
institutions or fund not included in the Schedule.

5. The Director may, with the previous sanction of the Government, and without prejudice to the provisions of section 4, audit the accounts of any authority, body, institution or fund not included in the Schedule subject to such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon between the Director and the person responsible for the administration of such authority, body, institution or fund.

Manner in which audit is to be conducted.

6. (1) The Director or the officer authorised by him under section 4, shall conduct the audit annually or at such intervals as he may deem fit. The Director may also conduct concurrent audit of such of those local authority or local fund as are found necessary under the provisions of any law governing them or as may be decided by the Director in consultation with the Government:

Provided that so far as village panchayats are concerned, the Director may conduct audit of twenty per cent of such panchayats in a financial year, so that all such panchayats are audited within a span of five years:

Provided further that no audit shall be commenced unless notice in writing for a period of not less than fifteen days is given to the executive authority concerned:

Provided also that for reasons to be recorded in writing, notice for a lesser period may be given or the notice may be dispensed with.

(2) The Director may verify the cash balance of the local fund at the time of audit.

(3) An officer not below the rank of Deputy Director, appointed under sub-section (2) of section 3, may inspect the records relating to the accounts of a local authority or local fund.

Liability of the Executive authority to prepare and present accounts for audit.

7. (1) The accounts of a local authority or local fund relating to every financial year shall be prepared or caused to be prepared by the Executive authority, within three months from the end of the financial year, in such form and in such manner as may be prescribed, and presented for audit.

(2) Where an Executive authority makes default in the preparation and presentation of accounts for audit within the specified period, he shall be punishable with a fine of not less than one thousand rupees, which may extend to five thousand rupees and shall also be liable to departmental action:

Provided that no such fine shall be imposed by the Director unless an opportunity of not less than fifteen days is given to show cause as to why it may not be imposed.

(3) The Government may withhold release of funds to any authority which fails to furnish accounts for audit on expiry of three months from the specified period.

Power to require production of accounts and attendance of persons for audit.

8. (1) For the purpose of audit under this Act, the Director may,—

(a) require in writing, the production at the place of audit, such vouchers, statements, returns, correspondences, notes or any other documents including documents in electronic form, the perusal or examination of which are necessary for the elucidation of the accounts;

(b) require in writing, any employee of a local authority or an authority which administers a local fund accountable for or having the custody or control of such vouchers, statements, returns, correspondences, notes or other documents including documents in electronic form or any person having directly or indirectly, any share or interest in any contract with the local authority or the authority which administers the local fund to appear in person before him and answer any question and require any person so appearing to make and sign a declaration with respect to such document or to prepare and furnish any statement relating thereto; and

(c) in the event of an explanation being required from any officer or member of a local authority or an authority which administers a local fund, invite such person and shall in writing, specify the point on which his explanation is required.

(2) The Director may, in any requisition made under sub-section (1), specify a period of not less than three days within which the said requisition shall be complied with.

Penalty for disobeying requisition under section 8.

9. Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to comply with any requisition lawfully made upon him under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 8 shall be punishable with a fine of not less than one thousand rupees, which may extend to five thousand rupees:

Provided that no such fine shall be imposed by the Director on any person until he has been given an opportunity of not less than fifteen days of showing cause against the fine:

Provided further that in the case of an employee of a local authority or an authority which administers a local fund, he shall also be liable to departmental action.

Completion of audit of accounts.

10. (1) The audit of the accounts prepared and presented for audit under section 7 shall be completed by the Director within a period of not exceeding six months as may be prescribed.

(2) The Director at the time of completion of audit shall verify the correctness of the accounts, certify the annual accounts in such manner as may be prescribed and append the certified copy of the accounts with the audit report.

Audit report to be sent to Executive authority and certain officers and bodies.

11. As soon as practicable after the completion of the audit, but not later than three months thereafter, the Director shall send to the Executive authority concerned a report on the accounts audited by him and copies of the report to such officers and bodies or institutions, as the Government may direct or as may be specified under the law governing that local authority or local fund, as the case may be.

12. The Director shall include in the audit report,—

- (a) any payment which appears to have been made contrary to any law or order of the Government;
- (b) the amount of any deficiency or loss which appears to have been caused by the negligence or misconduct of any person in the performance of his duties;
- (c) any case of misappropriation or improper utilisation of the fund;
- (d) the amount, if any, received which ought to have been brought into account but not brought into account; and
- (e) any other material impropriety or irregularity observed in the audit.

13. (1) On receipt of the audit report sent under section 11, the Executive authority shall, within a period of two months, either remedy the defects or irregularities, if any, pointed out therein and place the audit report together with a statement of action taken or place the audit report together with a statement of action proposed to be taken thereon before a meeting of the governing body of the authority concerned. The Executive authority shall also, within a month from the date of the said meeting, send to the Director a report of having remedied the said defects or irregularities or submit any explanation in regard to such defects or irregularities.

Procedure to be followed on receipt of audit report.

(2) On receipt of such report or explanation, the Director may,—

- (a) accept the report of having remedied the defects or irregularities or the explanation in regard thereto and drop the objection; or
- (b) hold that any or all of the defects or irregularities pointed out in the audit report have not been remedied.

(3) The Director shall, within two months from the date of receipt of the report or explanation, or if no such report or explanation is received, on expiry of the total period of three months referred to in sub-section (1), pass an order thereon. If the Director holds that any defect or irregularity pointed out in the audit report has not been remedied, he shall state in the order,—

- (a) whether the defect or irregularity can be regularised and, if so, by what method; or
- (b) if the defect or irregularity cannot be regularised, whether they can be condoned and, if so, by what authority; and
- (c) whether the amount to which the defect or irregularity, relate to, in his opinion, be charged and, if so, against whom.

(4) The local authority or the authority, body or institution which administers the local fund shall publish in its next administrative report, extract of the defect or irregularity, if any pointed out in the audit report, the explanation, if any, given by the Executive authority under sub-section (1) and the order passed thereon by the Director under sub-section (3) and shall also keep the same open to inspection for the public at its office for a period of one month from the date of the receipt of the order of the Director.

(5) Nothing in this section or section 12 shall preclude the Director, at any time, from bringing to the notice of the Government for such action as may be necessary, any information which appears to the Director to support a presumption of criminal misappropriation or fraud or, which, in his opinion, deserves special attention or immediate investigation.

14. (1) The Director may disallow any payment which appears to him to be contrary to any law or order of the Government, or the amount of any deficiency or loss caused by negligence or misconduct or any sum received, which ought to have been brought into account but not brought into account and surcharge the person or the person authorising the same and shall, in every such case, certify the amount due from such person:

Provided that no such surcharge shall be imposed by the Director on any person until he has been given an opportunity of not less than fifteen days of showing cause against the surcharge.

Director to surcharge illegal payments and loss caused by negligence or misconduct.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the surcharge may, within one month from the date of receipt of the decision of the Director, apply to the District Court, to set aside the surcharge and the Court, after taking such evidence as is necessary, may confirm, modify or remit the same.

(3) Every sum certified to be due from any person by the Director under this Act shall be paid by such person to the Executive authority within one month from the date of intimation to him of the decision of the Director unless, within that time, such person has filed an application before the District Court against the decision under sub-section (2) and such amount, if not so paid, or such amount as the District Court shall declare to be due, may be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue and for the purpose of such recovery, the Director shall have the powers of a Collector under the Tamil Nadu Revenue Recovery Act, 1864.

Powers and functions of Director.

15. (1) The Director shall exercise general supervision and control over the officers and staff of the Local Fund Audit Department.

(2) The Director shall have the power to settle the audit objections included in the audit report.

(3) The Director may approach the Principal Accountant General of the State to provide necessary technical guidance and support on the audit and maintenance of accounts of a local authority or local fund.

(4) The Director may condone any payment made from a local fund, of a sum not exceeding rupees ten thousand only, as may be prescribed by the Government, which appears to him to be contrary to law, if in his opinion, there was no negligence or misconduct on the part of the person making or authorising such payment.

(5) The Director shall also exercise such other powers and functions, as may be prescribed.

Delegation of powers and functions.

16. The Director may, by general or special order, delegate all or any of the powers to be exercised or functions to be performed by him under this Act or the rules made thereunder except the power under sub-section (4) of section 15 to any other Officer of the Local Fund Audit Department, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in that order.

Payment of cost of audit.

17. (1) The cost of audit of accounts shall be paid by the authority concerned at such rates as may be fixed by the Government, from time to time.

(2) The Government may, by general or special order, exempt, either wholly or in part, any authority from the liability to pay the cost of audit under sub-section (1).

(3) If the cost of audit due under sub-section (1) is not paid within one year from the date of its becoming due, the Government may adjust the same against the grant or other sums, if any, payable to such authority:

Provided that if no grant or other sums is payable to such authority, the cost of audit shall be recovered by the Director in such manner as may be prescribed.

Power to dispense with detailed audit.

18. The Director may, when circumstances so warrant, dispense with detailed audit of any account or class of transactions and apply such limited check in relation to such accounts or transactions as he may deem fit.

Defalcation or loss in money or stores to be reported by the Executive authority.

19. (1) Whenever any defalcation or loss in money or stores of any local authority or authority, body or institution which administers a local fund caused due to misappropriation, theft or natural calamities is detected, the fact shall be promptly reported by the Executive authority to the Director giving in detail the circumstances which led to such defalcation or loss.

(2) On receipt of a report under sub-section (1), the Director shall immediately conduct or cause to be conducted a special audit of the accounts of that authority:

Provided that nothing in this section shall prevent the Executive authority from initiating criminal proceedings against any person suspected of, or involved in, any defalcation or loss of money or stores.

Tamil Nadu
Act II of 1864.

20. The Director shall submit to the Government annually a consolidated report of the accounts audited by him containing such particulars which he intends to bring to their notice and the Government shall cause the consolidated report to be laid, as soon as may be, after it is received, along with the Report of the Comptroller and Auditor General, before the Legislative Assembly.

21. Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (2) of section 14, no civil court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any suit or proceedings in respect of any action taken or to be taken by the Government or the Director or any officer in pursuance of any power conferred by or under this Act.

Bar of jurisdiction of civil courts.

22. All audit of accounts pending at the commencement of this Act in respect of any local authority or local fund shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, be continued and completed by the Director, within such time as may be prescribed, as if this Act has not been enacted.

Special provision for pending audit.

23. The provisions of this Act shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law made by the Legislature of the State for the time being in force.

Act to override other enactments.

24. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Director or any officer for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule or order made thereunder.

Protection of action taken in good faith.

Central Act
XLV of 1860.

25. The Director or other officers shall be deemed, when acting or purporting to act in pursuance of the provisions of this Act or any rule or order to be public servants within the meaning of section 21 of the Indian Penal Code.

Director or other officers to be deemed to be public servants.

26. (1) The Government may make rules for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this Act.

Power to make rules.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the manner and the form in which the accounts of a local authority or local fund shall be kept and presented;

(b) the procedure to be followed by the Director in the conduct of audit and the period within which such audit shall be conducted;

(c) the manner in which the matters required to be published under this Act shall be published; and

(d) any other matter which is required to be or may be prescribed under this Act.

(3) Every rule made or notification or order issued under this Act, shall, as soon as possible, after it is made or issued, be placed on the Table of the Legislative Assembly and if before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or the next session, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in any such rule, notification or order, or the Legislative Assembly decides that the rule, notification or order should not be made, the rule, notification or order shall thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule, notification or order.

Power to remove difficulties.

27. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by order published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, make such provisions, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appears to them to be necessary or expedient for removing the difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be issued after the expiry of a period of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

Power to amend
Schedule.

28. The Government may, by notification, include any body, authority or institution or fund established by or under any law or order of the Government in the Schedule to this Act:

Provided that no body, authority or institution or fund shall be omitted from the Schedule except by the authority of law made by the State Legislature.

Savings.

29. The provisions of this Act shall not apply to any case, suit, appeal, revision petition or any other proceeding that may be pending at the commencement of this Act before the Director of Local Fund Audit, the Government or Civil Court and the law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall, notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, continue to apply to such cases, suits, appeals, revision petitions or other proceedings.

(13) "Secretary" means the Secretary referred to in section 6;

(14) "State" means the State of Tamil Nadu.

3. (1) There shall be an authority for the local bodies at State level to be known as "Ombudsman".

(2) The Governor shall, on the advice of the Chief Minister, appoint a person who has been an officer of the Government not below the rank of Principal Secretary to Government of Tamil Nadu as Ombudsman.

(3) A person appointed to be an Ombudsman shall, before entering upon his/her office, make and subscribe before the Governor or some other person appointed by him in that behalf, an oath or affirmation according to the form set out in the Schedule.

4. (1) A person appointed as Ombudsman shall hold office for a term of three years from the date on which he/she enters upon his/her office:

Provided that,—

(a) the person appointed as Ombudsman may, at any time by writing under his/her hand addressed to the Governor, resign his/her office;

(b) the person appointed as Ombudsman may be removed from his/her office in the manner specified in section 5; and

(c) the person appointed as Ombudsman shall retire from office if, during the term of his/her office, he/she completes the age of seventy years.

(2) The Ombudsman shall be entitled for payment of salary and allowances as may be admissible to the Tamil Nadu State Election Commissioner.

Appointment of Ombudsman.

Term of office and conditions of service of Ombudsman.

Removal of Ombudsman.

5. (1) The Ombudsman shall not be removed from his/her office, except by an order of the Governor, passed after a resolution of Legislative Assembly of the State, supported by a majority of the members of the Legislative Assembly present and voting, for such removal, on the ground of proved misbehaviour or incapacity.

(2) The procedure for the presentation of an address under sub-section (1) and for the investigation and proof of the misbehaviour or incapacity of the Ombudsman shall be in accordance with the provisions of the rules framed for the purpose by the Government.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), the Ombudsman shall be removed from office by the Governor on the advice of the Chief Minister, if he/she,—

(a) is adjudicated as an insolvent; or

(b) engages during his/her term of office in any paid employment outside the duties of his/her office; or

(c) is convicted and sentenced to imprisonment for an offence which involves moral turpitude.

Officers and employees
of Ombudsman.

6. (1) The Ombudsman shall have a Secretary, and such other officers and employees as the Government may determine in consultation with the Ombudsman to assist the Ombudsman in the exercise of his/her powers and discharge of his/her functions under this Act.

(2) The appointment and conditions of service of the Secretary, officers and other employees shall be such as may be prescribed.

(3) The officers and other employees referred to in sub-section (1) shall be under the superintendence and control of the Ombudsman.

(4) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-section (1), the Ombudsman may, for the purpose of conducting enquiry under this Act, utilise the services of,—

(a) any officer or investigating agency of the Government; or

(b) any other State agency.

(5) The Ombudsman may requisition the services of any person who is having experience and expertise in any particular subject in deciding the questions before him.

Functions of Ombudsman.

7. The Ombudsman shall perform all or any of the following functions, namely:—

(i) enquire into any written complaint from the Government or that has come to the notice of the Ombudsman in which corruption or maladministration of a public servant or a local body is alleged;

(ii) pass an order on the proved allegation in the following manner, namely:—

(a) where the irregularity involves a criminal offence committed by a public servant, the matter shall be referred to the appropriate investigating agency for necessary action;

(b) where the irregularity involves loss of the fund of the local body, order recovery of such loss from those who are responsible for such irregularity;

(c) where the irregularity is due to wilful negligence or dereliction of duty of any officer or employee of the local body, recommend for departmental action by the appropriate authority under the relevant rules.

Powers of Ombudsman.

8. (1) The Ombudsman shall, for the purpose of any enquiry, have all the powers of a civil court trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and, in particular, in respect of the following matters, namely:—

(a) summoning and enforcing the attendance of complainant or witnesses and examining him/her on oath;

- (b) requiring the discovery and production of any relevant and necessary document;
- (c) receiving evidence on affidavits;
- (d) requisitioning any public record, or copy thereof from any court or office;
- (e) issuing commission for the examination of witness and documents; and
- (f) any other matter which may be prescribed.

(2) Where the Ombudsman finds after enquiry that the allegation contained in a complaint is without any substance, he/she may, by an order, direct the complainant to pay to the opposite party an amount specified in the order by way of cost.

(3) Where the allegation contained in a written complaint is about the loss of the fund of the local body, the Ombudsman may, during enquiry, collect evidence, determine the loss and direct in his/her order, the amount to be realised from the person responsible.

(4) If the amount payable as per the order passed by the Ombudsman under sub-section (2) or sub-section (3) is not paid within the period specified by him/her, the same shall be recovered as if it were an arrear of land revenue under the Tamil Nadu Revenue Recovery Act, 1864.

9. The Government may, at the request of the Ombudsman, make available the services of officers and employees of the Government including police personnel to assist the Ombudsman in the conduct of enquiry.

Service of Government Department.

10. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the Government may refer any allegation of corruption or maladministration against a local body or a public servant which is within their knowledge or brought to their notice, to the Ombudsman and the Ombudsman shall enquire into it as if it was a complaint filed under this Act.

Enquiry.

(2) The Ombudsman may, on receipt of a complaint, examine the complaint and supporting documentary proof and where there is prima facie case, he/she may enquire into it.

(3) The Ombudsman shall not enquire into matters relating to,—

- (a) any matter in respect of which a formal and public enquiry has been ordered by the Government;
- (b) any matter in respect of which an enquiry has been ordered under the Commission of Inquiries Act, 1952 or any matter pending before a Court;
- (c) any complaint filed after the expiry of five years from the date on which the occurrence is said to have taken place.

(4) After an enquiry, if the Ombudsman is satisfied that,—

- (a) the complaint is frivolous or vexatious or is not made in good faith; or
- (b) there is no sufficient ground to continue proceedings; or
- (c) other remedies are available to the complainant and it would be more beneficial for the complainant to avail of such remedies in view of the circumstances of the case, he/she may reject the complaint after recording his/her findings stating the reason therefor, and communicate the same to the complainant.

(5) The Ombudsman shall, subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder, have power to regulate its procedure by fixing the time and place of sitting.

Initiation of prosecution.

11. (1) If, after an enquiry, the Ombudsman finds that there is a prima facie case against a public servant involving a criminal offence, the Ombudsman may refer the complaint and the findings with recommendation to the appropriate investigating agency.

(2) The appropriate investigating agency, on completion of investigation, shall initiate prosecution after obtaining sanction from the competent authority.

Disposal of complaints.

12. (1) The Ombudsman may consider and dispose of complaints other than those involving criminal offences, in the following manner, namely:—

(a) order the recovery of loss caused to the local body from the person responsible;

(b) order the recovery of loss from the accused failing which order for recovery of the amount as if it were an arrear of land revenue under the Tamil Nadu Revenue Recovery Act, 1864;

(c) refer the complaint to the appropriate authority to take disciplinary action for willful negligence or dereliction of duty of any officer or employee of the local body;

(d) order other necessary remedial measures considering the facts and circumstances of the case;

(e) where the Ombudsman finds that the procedure or practice regarding the administration of local body gives room for complaint, he/she may give suggestions to the Government or local body relating to the measures for avoiding the recurrence of such complaint.

(2) The Ombudsman shall submit an annual report regarding the performance of his/her functions under this Act to the Government and the Government shall lay it before the Legislative Assembly with an explanatory memorandum.

Protection of action taken in good faith.

13. No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rule made thereunder.

Power to give direction.

14. The Government may, from time to time, issue such directions, as it may deem fit, for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

Power to remove difficulties.

15. If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this Act, the Government may, by an order published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette, make such provisions not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act as appear to them to be necessary or expedient for removing such difficulty:

Provided that no such order shall be made after the expiry of two years from the date of commencement of this Act.

Power to make rules.

16. (1) The Government may make rules for carrying out the purposes of this Act.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for all or any of the following matters, namely:—

(a) the conditions of service of the Ombudsman's Secretary, officers and employees;

(b) the form and manner of filing complaints before the Ombudsman;

(c) procedure to be followed during the inquiry, which, as far as possible, be summary proceedings;

(d) the manner of implementing the order of the Ombudsman;

(e) any other matter which the Government may deem necessary to prescribe.

Tamil Nadu
1864.

(3) All rules made and notification issued under this Act shall be published in the Tamil Nadu Government Gazette and unless they are expressed to come into force on a particular day shall come into force on the day on which they are so published.

(4) Every rule, notification or order made or issued under this Act shall, as soon as possible, after it is made or issued, be placed on the table of the Legislative Assembly, and if, before the expiry of the session in which it is so placed or in the next session, the Legislative Assembly makes any modification in any such rule, notification or order or the Legislative Assembly decides that the rule, notification or order should not be made or issued, the rule, notification or order shall, thereafter have effect only in such modified form or be of no effect, as the case may be, so, however, that any such modification or annulment shall be without prejudice to the validity of anything previously done under that rule, notification or order.

17. Nothing contained in this Act shall affect the provisions of the relevant laws in so far as it relates to public servant.

Saving.

Tamil Nadu
Ordinance
2 of 2014.

18. (1) The Tamil Nadu Local Bodies Ombudsman Ordinance, 2014 is hereby repealed.

Repeal and saving.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, anything done, any action taken or any direction given under the said Ordinance, shall be deemed to have been done, taken or given under this Act.

THE SCHEDULE.

[See Section 3].

I, ..... having been appointed as the Ombudsman for local bodies, do swear in the name of God/solemnly affirm that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of India, that I will uphold the sovereignty and integrity of India, that I will duly and faithfully and to the best of my ability, knowledge and judgement perform the duties of my office without fear or favour, affection or ill-will and that I will uphold the Constitution and the laws.

(By order of the Governor)
