eligible e.g. Government's contribution to provident fund, gratuity, commuted value of pension etc., provided that the total amount of initial pay plus the gross amount of pension and/or pensionary equivalent of other forms of retirement (pre-retirement pay) or Rs.3,000 whichever is less.

Note 1 — In all cases where either of this limit is exceeded, the pension and other retirement benefits may be drawn by the employee in full but necessary adjustments will be made in the pay so as to ensure that the total of pay and pensionary benefits does not exceed the prescribed limits.

Where, after the initial pay has been fixed at the minimum or at any higher stage under (a) above, it is reduced below the minimum as a result of the said adjustments, increase in pay may be allowed after each year of service at the rates of increments admissible as if the pay had been fixed at the minimum or the higher stage as the case may be.

* As amended by D.V.C. Notification No. 30 dated the 10th July, 1961 and has effect from the 12th August, 1959.

- iii) The above concession shall be admissible only where the employee has retired on a superannuation pension.

d) In a case where the minimum pay of a post in which an employee is re-employed is more than the last pay drawn, the employee may be allowed the minimum of the prescribed scale of the post less pension and pensionary equivalent of other retirement benefits.

e) Once the initial pay of a re-employed pensioner has been fixed in the manner indicated above, he will be allowed to draw normal increments in the time-scale of the post to which he is appointed, provided that the pay and gross pension/pension equivalent of other retirement benefits taken together do not at any time exceed Rs. 3,000 per month.

Regulation 26 : Notwithstanding the provisions of regulation 25, the initial pay of an employee holding a lien on a post under the Corporation will be regulated as follows :

- i) When the appointment to the new post involves the assumption of duties or responsibilities of greater importance than those attaching to the post on which he holds a lien, he will draw as initial pay the stage of time-scale next above his presumptive pay in respect of the old post.
- ii) When appointment to the new post does not involve such assumption, he will draw as initial pay the stage of time-scale which is equal to his presumptive pay of the post on which lien is held, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below that pay, plus personal pay equal to the difference to be absorbed in future increments, but if the minimum pay of the time-scale of the new post is higher than his substantive pay, he will draw that minimum pay as initial pay.
- iii) An employee appointed to officiate in a post will draw the presumptive pay of that post. Provided that on an enhancement in the substantive pay, as a result of increment or otherwise, the pay of such employee shall be refixed from the date of such enhancement as if he was appointed to officiate in that post on that date where such refixation is to his advantage.*

- i) With effect from the 2nd March, 1960, the pay of an employee who has put in more than three years' continuous service in a post will be fixed in the new post in the same manner as that of a person holding a lien under Regulation 26 (i) and (ii), provided the appointing authority is satisfied that he is eligible and suitable for permanent appointment to the post from which he is transferred/promoted. The benefit of Regulation 26(iii) shall also be admissible to such employees.
- ii) The initial pay of the employees other than those to whom clause (i) above will be applicable will be fixed in the new post at the stage equal to the pay drawn in the previous post or if there is no such stage the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference to be absorbed in the next increment and the next increment will be allowed on the same date on which it would have fallen due in the previous post, provided the following conditions are satisfied :

- v) If an employee is promoted to a higher post and then reverted to the original lower post, he may be allowed to draw pay in the lower post at the same stage at which he would have drawn it but for his promotion to higher post and he will also draw his next increment on the date on which he would have drawn it in the lower post.

*Regulation 26(B) : Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation 25, 26 and 26A, where an employee holding a post in a substantive, temporary or officiating capacity is promoted or appointed in a substantive, temporary or officiating capacity to another post carrying duties and responsibilities of great importance than those attaching to the post held by him, his initial pay in the time-scale of the higher post shall be fixed at the stage next above the pay nationally arrived at by adding one increment to the pay actually drawn by him in the lower post at the time.
